Roosevelt Bureau Says Taft Was Elected from Harvester Trust Building and Promises More Hot Stuff.

TAFT BUREAU MAKES PERKINS ITS TEXT

Washington, March 5.—Senator Joseph M. Dixon, chairman of the Roosevelt executive committee, replied today to the statement given out by the national Taft headquarters yesterday, in which attention was called to the location of the Roosevelt headquarters in a building owned by Frank A. Munsey.

"We elected Taft four years ago out of the International Harvester company building in Chicago," said Chairman Dixon. "Our headquarters occupied the sixth floor of that building, and so far as I know, no rent was paid for the rooms.

"If personalities are wanted in this campaign," Senator Dixon said, "we will give them more than they expect."

Taft Men in Come-Back.

The National Taft headquarters gave out a statement today, declaring that the "farmers of the middle west" are "demanding that George W. Perkins and Medill McCormick, related to prominent officials of the harvester trust, separate themselves from Mr. Roosevelt and his campaign.

"In this demand," the statement says, "they are only indicating their ignorance of the fact that Mr. Perkins would probably have lost his job long ago had it not been for his intimate friendship with Mr. Roosevelt running back over many years.

"While still remaining a director of the steel corporation and of the International Harvester company, Mr. Perkins has recently severed himself from many of his business connections and is now devoting much of his time to solving the problems of the times. The first great work along this line to which Mr. Perkins is now directing his undivided attention and his pocket book, is the nomination and election of Mr. Roosevelt to a third term as president."

ANOTHER STATEMENT ISSUED.

Washington, March 5.—The national Roosevelt headquarters today gave out a statement, which said:

"Further evidence of the manner in which the administration campaign managers are conducting the fight for delegates has come to light in the form of a circular letter which is being sent to postmasters and other federal employes throughout the northwest. That a similar form of letter is being sent out through the south already has been stated, but its exact terms have not as yet come to light.

"The letters received by the federal employes in the northwest are very delicately worded—such letters as only the pen of the diplomatic Mr. McKinley could well turn out, and abound with veiled threats and plastic phrase.

Limitless Enthusiasm.

"Boundless enthusiasm is expressed and it is declared without hesitation that the sentiment in favor of the nomination of President Taft is rapidly growing. Hints are then thrown out that assistance of all good officeholders is needed, Mr. McKinley evidently forgetting the optimism expressed in the preceding paragraph.

"Already several hundred of these letters have been sent out, it is stated, and more, said to contain a more personal tone, are in course of preparation for serving on job-holders who have displayed reluctance to rally to the support of the administration. In these later epistles, it is stated, the hints as to what will be the portion of federal servants who fail to faithfully serve the interests of President Taft are made more plain."

McKinley's Note.

With the statement the Roosevelt headquarters have out a copy of one of the Taft circular letters addressed in blank. After expressing optimism as to the outlook for Mr. Taft and the opening of the national Taft bureau, the letter concludes:

"It will be the aim of this bureau to conduct a dignified and energetic campaign in keeping with the president's high conception of American statesmanship. I would, therefore, thank you to render such assistance as you can, consistent with your duties, and would appreciate and early reply giving me such information as in your judgment will facilitate the work of the bureau.

"Very truly yours,
"WILLIAM B. M'KINLEY,
"Director."

MUNCIE COPS DO NOT BATHE.

Muncie, Ind., March 5.—If policemen bathe, they at least do not like public baths—or rather, public bath tubs. This is the conclusion reached by the new board of police commissioners here, which has ordered that the bath tub and appliances in central police station be torn out. The bath tub fixtures were in bad repair and investigation showed that the policemen did not require the bath tub. It was thought better to abolish the bath apparatus than to have it repaired.

AWFUL ATROCITY BY THE CHINESE

Imperial Troops Put Out Eyes and Then Kill Converts.

CALL THEM REBELS

Peking, March 5.—A letter from a missionary at Hwang-Hsien, near ChiFu received here today states that the imperial troops put out the eyes of forty Christian converts and then beheaded them, saying that they were naturally rebels.

WILL MOVE THE CAPITAL.

Nanking, March 5.—In an effort to restore order and inaugurate a stable government as soon as possible, it is understood Dr. Sun Yat Sen and his advisers have decided to go to Peking and make that city, for the present at least, the capital of the new republic. This step is regarded as advisable on account of the mutinous spirit evidenced by the troops in the vicinity of Peking and the general unrest there.

The plans which are now being prepared provide for the early removal of the entire official machinery of the republic. Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the acting president, and Li Yuan Heng, the vice president, will be accompanied by all the members of the cabinet and by the assembly. The officials will be guarded by 2,000 veteran troops and a picked bodyguard of ninety men.

It is believed here that the removal of the seat of government to Peking will of itself restore order there. The formal establishment of the new government and the inauguration of Yuan Shi Kai as president, will be undertaken immediately. Dr. Sun Yat Sen is confident that affairs in Nanking will remain peaceful in the meantime. The announcement of the removal to Peking will probably be withheld until after the return here of the four southern delegates who have been consulting with Yuan. It is understood that Yuan is in favor of the move.

Heads still hang warningly on the tripods here and there in the streets of Peking although some of the bodies have been removed and buried. The daily marches of detachments of troops from the various legations through the streets of the capital are having a moral effect, but the stores still conduct their business cautiously through small windows.

The soldiers of the various divisions of the Chinese army continue to squabble and it is thought there is danger of one division attacking another. Some of the officers are haranging and endeavoring to pacify the men, but it is reported that many of the officers were among the looters.

U. S. GUNBOATS TO MOVE.

Tien Tsin, China, March 5.—Two United States gunboats have been ordered to proceed from the Yang-Tse river to Taku at the mouth of the Pei-Ho, thirty miles to the southeast of this city. Three battalions of Japanese troops are expected to arrive here tonight to reinforce the international garrison.

The German troops, which have been acting as a protective force along the railroad between Pei-Tang and Tang-Shan, on the line from Tien Tsin to Chin-Wang-Tao, have been withdrawn to Tien Tsin as it is considered by the foreign commandants that the stronger forces than are at present available here are required. As the Pei-Ho is now open to traffic the railroad guards between Tien Tsin and Shan Hai Kwan, on the Manchurian border, are no longer essential for the preservation of communication between Peking and the sea.

Reports persist in Chinese circles that a body of native troops is advancing on Tien Tsin, but no confirmation of the rumor has been obtained.

The city generally is quiet, but decapitations take place daily. Many of the shops have put up signs reading, "Already looted. Now empty."

TERRIBLE CONDITIONS.

Hong Kong, March —Serious unrest continues in the provinces of Kwang-Tung and Kwang-Si, where large numbers of discharged soldiers have taken to murdering and looting. The hills along the shores of the West river have been fortified as a protection against the marauding bands. Assassinations are of

MRS. TAFT HEARS TESTIMONY IN LAWRENCE STRIKE QUIZ

Wife of President Listens to Recital of Police Brutalities to Women and Children in Mill Town.

Washington, March 5.—Mrs. William Howard Taft, wife of the president, was an interested listener today to the tales of alleged oppression and cruelty in the Lawrence, Mass., textile strike told to the house rules committee when it resumed its consideration of the industrial struggle in the mill city.

Before the first witness took the stand, Representative Victor Berger of Wisconsin, socialist, had read into the report a telegram from Wm. D. Haywood, one of the strike leaders, to the effect that two women witnesses sought by Mr. Berger could not come to Washington because of injuries sustained at the hands of the police in the recent rioting. One of the women Haywood said was in the hospital in a critical condition while the other was confined to her home.

Miss Tena Camitta a Philadelphia vocal student and Sunday school teacher and a member of one of the committees that sought to get the children out of Lawrence, told of the scenes at the railroad station at Lawrence. She related how she had endeavored to lead the children from the station to the train.

"For some reason the children got out a head of me," she said, "and instantly the women and children were hurled into a struggling mass by the police. I was squeezed against the wall of the waiting room and was terribly frightened."

Warned to Keep Away.

"The crowd in front of me was so dense that I could see little. I called out to the police, 'Be careful of the children! You're killing them.' Later when I sought to accompany them to the police station I was told that I'd better stay away or I'd be clubbed, too."

Miss Camitta admitted that she saw no clubbing of women or children in th estation nor any injured after the affray.

"I did see the police clubbing women in the patrol wagon," she said.

"The wagon was crowded and the police were thrusting the women about with their clubs."

The witness at this juncture refused to advance an opinion on how many women were in wagon, but said she saw more than one woman beaten. At no time, she said, had she observed any outrages committed by the militiamen.

It was while Miss Camitta was testifying that Mrs. Taft arrived at the committee room. She appeared to take great interest in the proceedings and remained throughout the morning.

Parents Were Threatened.

Miss Camitta told of detectives visiting the homes of parents of Lawrence children and threatening them if they sent their children away.

"In all cases where children were to be taken to Philadelphia," asked Chairman Henry, "did you have the parents' consent?"

"In every case," she said.

Simon Knebel, who was in Lawrence on Saturday, Feb. 24, another member of the committee from Philadelphia, an organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, was the next witness.

Says It is Right System.

"This system of taking children from strike towns is a system that is going to prevail in this country in the future in labor wars," said Knebel.

"It is imported from Europe, isn't it," asked Representative Hardwick.

"Well it's been used in Europe," said Knebel, "but that's not the only reason it should be tried here."

"I just wanted to know the fact," said Mr. Hardwick.

Telling of what happened at the Lawrence depot Knebel said: "We grouped the children in a file of two and started to send them out of the depot door. Then we saw two lines of police. Just as we left the door the police started their bloody work.

"The children and their parents began to pass through this line of police. The police tore the children from their mothers. They were screaming and there were most unearthly yells. I saw one policeman strike a pregnant woman in the abdomen.

Assaulted by Police.

"When I came out I was stooping over four or five children. Three or four policemen got hold of me and wrestled me all over the place. They didn't want to arrest me. They dragged me until my knee bled and twisted my foot. When they got me away they went back. Then I went back. I couldn't see women and children abused that way. I didn't care if I was getting murdered that day."

"How many women did you see beaten that day?" asked Mr. Henry.

"I saw a whole wagon load of injured. I saw one young woman, not a striker, clubbed by a policeman. She was struck several time in the back. Finally they arrested me and I was kept

CAPTURED BY MEXICAN REBELS

But Ex-Congressman John C. Chaney is Later Released.

WELL KNOWN HERE

Washington, March 5.—John C. Chaney, of Sullivan, Ind., a member of the Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth congresses, was captured and held prisoner for some time in Mexico by the insurrectos, but later was released. Mrs. Chaney visited the state department in an effort to have the government ascertain what had become of Mr. Chaney since his release. She had received word he had been set free but the message contained no other information. The state department sent instructions to Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City to make every effort to ascertain whether Mr. Chaney is safe.

The information concerning Mr. Chaney came from Guadalajara. It was stated he had been visiting the San Miguel mine, about seventy-five miles from Queretaro in the state of that name. United States Consul Samuel E. Magill had telegraphed the information to Sullivan, Ind., Mr. Chaney's home, and from there it was forwarded to Mrs. Chaney here. Others in the American party were Major James Henry, General New, of Greenfield, Ind., and a Mr. Robinson, of Indianapolis.

A dispatch from Sullivan, Mr. Chaney's home, says that word has been received there that Mr. Chaney and his friends are well and that they have averted trouble from the revolutionists.

CIVIC FEDERATION IN ANNUAL MEET

Seth Low, Cardinal Gibbons and Others are Listened To.

LABOR AND CAPITAL

Washington, March 5.—Discussion of the relationship between employer and employe was the feature of the first day's session of the twelfth annual congress of the National Civic Federation here today.

Cardinal Gibbons was the first speaker on the program, which included Seth Low, of New York, president of the organizaton; Judge Martin A. Knapp, of the commerce court; C. G. Norman, of the New York Building Trades Employers' association, and Second Assistant Postmaster General Joseph Stewart.

Cardinal Gibbons was the presiding officer for the opening day and President Taft is expected to preside over the sessions tomorrow and Thursday. Besides the regular meetings of the federation gatherings will be held by various departments for the consideration of important questions.

Low Defends Labor Unions.

Appealing for the advancement of industrial peace and industrial co-operation between employer and employe, Dr. Low, president of the federation, eulogized the labor union and defended its right to struggle for recognition. He endorsed heartily the American Federation of Labor and its methods with equal spirit denounced the radical labor leaders as socialists, "seeking a social revolution, not a social evolution."

"My judgment is that the pathway to industrial peace and industrial efficiency," said Mr. Low, "is to be found in the hearty co-operation of employers with labor unions, in the confident expectation that when the right of workingmen to collective bargaining passes unchallenged in practice, the right of other workingmen to forego collective bargaining, if they wish to do so, will be equally unchallenged."

Mr. Low, referring to the McNamara case, said it had demonstrated to organized labor that if in the future it wished to command public sympathy and confidence, "it must be prompt to disown all violence connected with the struggles of labor."

Defending the antagonism of organized labor to non-union workmen, Mr. Low said the unions were forced to recognize in the non-union element "the club which the employers use to deprive them of their own right to collective bargaining for their labor."

Throughout his address he urged upon both capital and labor greater tolerance and a broader spirit of understanding in their relations.

Pleads for Industrial Peace.

Cardinal Gibbons, presiding at the first session, made a plea for industrial peace. He paid tribute to the workman and declared the motto of both employer and employe should be "Labor and Capital, one and inseparable, now and forever."

"The purpose of our meeting," said the cardinal, "is to remove, as far as possible, all hostilities and recriminations, all bickerings and misunderstandings between capital and labor, so that mutual love and good will may be inaugurated between them, and the glorious reign of business and commercial prosperity may be confirmed and perpetuated throughout the land."

Capital and labor, the cardinal declared, were "the invincible arms of industrial activity," and should work in harmony for the common good. He said a halo had been shed around the workman ever since Christ handled the tools of an artisan in the carpenter's shop in Nazareth.

"If the profession of a soldier has

MYSTERY SURROUNDS THE CASE OF AN INJURED MAN

Jesse Beavers, of Churubusco, is Found Frightfully Hurt Along Nickel Plate Tracks at Burket.

Mystery surrounds the case of Jesse Beavers, of Churubusco, 32 years old, who was found along the Nickel Plate railroad tracks at Burket, forty-five miles west of Fort Wayne, at 10:30 o'clock Monday night, suffering from a fractured skull and other injuries that it is feared will prove fatal.

At the Lutheran hospital in this city Beavers has not regained consciousness, but raves at intervals in delirium. He was a passenger aboard a westbound Nickel Plate train which passed through Bucket without stopping soon after 6 o'clock Monday evening, and railroad authorities are totally at a loss to understand how the man came to fall from the train.

Lay Helpless for Hours.

The fact that Beavers was not found until 10:30 o'clock makes it evident that he must have lain helpless beside the tracks for something like three hours before his plight was discovered. Dr. Murphy, of Claypool, was summoned to attend him and he was brought to Fort Wayne at 4 o'clock this morning and removed to the Lutheran hospital, where he is under the care of Dr. J. Frank Dimen.

Beavers, who is unmarried returned but a few weeks ago from the west, and was starting on his return trip to Missoula, Mont. He left Churubusco at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, boarding the Nickel Plate train at Claypool. The coaches are all vestibuled, and the train authorities say they are unable to explain how Beavers managed to fall from the train. They were totally unaware of the accident until telegrams from Burket told of the finding of the injured man some hours after the train had passed that point without stopping. Beaver's ticket to Missoula was found in his clothing.

Skull Fracture Extensive.

Examination at the hospital disclosed that Beavers is suffering from an extensive fracture of the skull back of the right ear, while the ear is practically torn from the body and there are numerous scalp wounds all of which were filled with cinders received in contact with the earth when the man was hurled by the momentum of the train. His recovery is extremely problematical.

The injured man has a sister attending school in this city, and she, with her father, Nathan Beavers, and a brother of Churubusco, were at the bedside of the sufferer this morning.

ROOSEVELT CLEARS SKIRTS OF CHARGE

Publishes Letter to Munsey Written in January to Prove That He Has Not Double-Crossed Taft.

New York, March 5.—To clear up conflicting statements as to what he had said in regard to the presidential nomination, Colonel Roosevelt today made public a letter which he wrote last January to Frank A. Munsey, the publisher. Colonel Roosevelt's object in giving out the communication, he said, was to refute the charge that he was breaking a promise in agreeing to accept the nomination if it were offered to him.

He called particular attention to a passage in the letter in which, while stating that he would not be a candidate, he declared that he would not go on record as being unwilling to accept the nomination.

"To every man I talked to," said Colonel Roosevelt, "I made in substance that same statement, and I made it in literally hundreds of letters."

Letter to Munsey.

The portion of the Munsey letter to which the colonel called particular attention, follows:

"What I have said to you, and am about to say to you, I have, for instance, said not only to other friends who think I ought to be nominated, but to friends (and even foes) who think I ought not to be nominated, provided only I could trust their sincerity, intelligence and truthfulness. For instance, I have said the same thing to Secretary Stimson, Secretary Meyer and Congressman Longworth, who are supporting Taft; to Mr. Pinchot and Congressmen Lenroot and Kent, who are supporting LaFollette. I have said that to editors like Mr. Nelson, Mr. Van Valkenburg and Mr. Wright; I practically said that to the entire Aldine club—democrats, republicans, every one.

Not a Candidate.

"I am not and shall not be a candidate. I shall not seek the nomination nor would I accept it if it came to me as the result of an intrigue. But I will not tie my hands by a statement which would make it difficult or impossible for me to serve the public by undertaking a great task, if the people as a

PLANS OWN FUNERAL.

South Bend, Ind., March 5.—Rev. Traugott Thieme, head of the Indiana conference of the German Evangelistic Lutheran church and for twenty-three years pastor of St. Paul's church here, died today after two months' illness. Before he died he made all preparations for the funeral, which will be held Friday. He named the Rev. W. Roesner, of Bremen, and the Rev. Martin Kretzman, of Kendallville, to preach the sermons, one in German and one in English, and also signified his preference for hymns.

GIRL BALKED AT PRAYERS.

Los Angeles, March 5.—Angered because she was compelled against her will to participate in family prayers, a service which she does not believe in, Miss Claire Vincent, one of the prettiest and most popular belles of Huntington Beach, smashed a washbowl on the floor while her father was invoking the Divine blessing, relieved her mind of vigorous opinions as to feminine rights and fled the parental home. Since that time the police of all Southern California have sought her in vain. Miss Vincent is 19 years old.

Under the will of Elizabeth Bauserman filed in the circuit court today all her personal property is bequeathed to her daughter, E. Biven Cummins, and her husband is given $100.

Mr. Lane's Automobile

"I TOOK a little run out to Stoner's Mill one day last summer to let the folks enjoy the beauties of that picturesque spot," said I. Ellenwood Lane, who has left the management of the Knox store to remove to Calgary, Alberta. "I run the automobile over on the grassy stretch between the two bridges, and then we got out and strolled along the creek. After a while we returned to get into the machine again, when a distressing sight met my gaze.

"Evidently, someone had used my machine while I was away and had given it hard usage, too. It was covered with mud, one of the fenders was badly twisted and in other ways it was so badly knocked out that I was mystified and heartsick. And then I made a discovery that brought back the smiles."

"A discovery?"

"Yes—it wasn't my automobile at all. It seems that just after I arrived with my machine and we had gone up the creek, another party with a machine of the same make drove up and left it while they, too, took a stroll. Their machine had seen longer and harder usage than mine. My machine was

FREE SUGAR BILL GOES TO HOUSE

Favorable Report is Made But Income Tax Bill Must Wait.

TREATIES IN SENATE

Washington, March 5.—The sugar tariff revision bill was reported favorably to the house today by Chairman Underwood, of the ways and means committee. The excise bill providing for an income tax to take up the loss of revenue will not be reported until later.

TREATIES UP IN SENATE.

Washington, March 5.—America's arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France, pending in the senate since last August will be finally disposed of before the close of the "legislative day" beginning at noon today. The advocates of the treaties, in constant consultation with the administration officials have been marshaling forces for months, and early today they expressed complete confidence in the ratification of the treaties unamended with an amended resolution of ratification, interpreting the scope so as to safeguard the senate's traditional treaty making powers. Confident of more than the required two-thirds, their lowest prediction was 67 votes with probably small margin over that number. Under unanimous consent reached some time ago, consideration of the treaties was to folow the routine opening proceedings today.

HANGED FOR THE MURDER OF WOMAN

Joe Stott Pays Penalty at Rope's End in Harrisburg.

MOTHER'S SAD CASE

Harrisburg, Pa., March 5.—Joseph A. Stott, aged 29, was hanged today for the murder of Blanche Taylor in this city last June. Stott shot down the woman on the street, admitting that he had come here from Lancaster expressly to kill her because she had refused to become his wife. Stott left a confession.

Stott's execution had attracted some attention because his mother, who lived at Syracuse, N. Y., had been forced to do washing to raise funds to have him buried at home. Numerous contributions were given to her. Sheriff Wells, who hanged Stott today, being the first to contribute toward the funeral expenses.

The aged mother, together with Stott's brother and sister, came from Syracuse to take the body to Syracuse and at his request to make an effort to obtain a respite for him.

Sheriff Wells, mentioned in the foregoing dispatch, is a brother of Hon. William S. Wells, of Fort Wayne.

was 57 years of age and resided at 702 Union street.

Mr. Probasco had been in impaired health for some time, and he entered the hospital for an operation, to which he submitted today. It is said that death was primarily due to heart failure.

Mr. Probasco was for years connected with the old Fort Wayne Gas company, later going to the Fort Wayne Trust company and finally to the Tri-State. He is survived by the widow as well as more remote relatives, and was prominent in the Masonic fraternity.

in the station house hours with women and children in the cells.

"I come from Pennsylvania. That has not got such a good record for police. But the Pennsylvania constabulary never dared or contemplated such brutality on women and children as have the police of Lawrence in this case.

"The inter-state commerce law was violated when I, who had bought a railroad ticket, was prevented from taking a train."

"How about the Massachusetts courts?"

"There is no law in Massachusetts now."

Representative Hardwick questioned Knebel further about the motive of removing the Lawrence children. He called attention to the fact that the system had been used in Italy, Belgium and France.

"That makes no difference here," said Knebel. "Though this is the first time in the history of this country that it was used, the conditions at Lawrence justified it."

In the police station where he was locked up Knebel said that all day the children were not given anything to eat, 15 or 18 of them.

"Some of them were children at the breasts," he continued. "Some of the husbands whose wives were locked up, brought children to their mothers to be nursed.

"When the case came up some of the children were forcibly taken from their mothers, to be taken to a poor farm to be cared for."

"Were the children actually locked up in the same kind of cells where thieves and criminals were locked up?" asked Representative Pou.

"They were in the same kind of cells," said Knebel.

Miss Margaret Sanger, of New York, a trained nurse who was instrumental in taking children from Lawrence to New York, also was a witness.

Miss Sanger said the condition of many of the children was horrible.

Out of 119 children only four of them had any underwear on," said Miss Sanger.

"And these people were working in a woolen mill?" asked Representative Stanley.

"Yes."

"Was their outer clothing wool?" asked Representative Foster.

"No; most of the clothing was rags."

Miss Sanger said the doctors examined the children in New York and that most of them were sick and emaciated. "You ought to have seen the children eat when we got them to New York," said Miss Sanger. "They grabbed the meat and ate it with their hands, they were so hungry."

STRIKERS RETURNING.

Lawrence, Mass., March 5.—At least 3,000 operatives who have been on strike, have returned to employment during the past few days, according to the mill managers today. It is admitted, however, that the ranks of the strikers have received additions in the same period, but the desire to return to work seems to be more general.

It was believed by the mill agents that within a short time there will be a general return of employes.

Plans of the Industrial workers of the world leaders for general picketing did not materialize today. The number of persons on the streets before the mill gates opened was about one-half of the thousands that appeared yesterday. The attention of the pickets was directed chiefly towards the South Lawrence district, in the vicinity of the Wood, Ayer, Lawrence Duck company and Kuhnhardt mills, and it was thought that these factories received the fewest new additions to the operating force. It was estimated that at the Pacific and Arlington mills eighty per cent. of the workers have returned, and nearly one-half of the employes of the Washington mills are working.

ASSERTS DARROW GAVE HIM MONEY

Confessed Jury Briber in Los Angeles Accuses Indicted Lawyer.

GAVE CASH TO BAIN

Los Angeles, Cal., March 5.—Clarence S. Darrow, the Chicago attorney indicted on a charge of jury bribing, has in his possession today a copy of the testimony given against him in the grand jury chamber by Bert H. Franklin the McNamara detective. Franklin was fined $4,000 recently after pleading guilty to a charge of having attempted to influence Robert F. Blain, the first juror sworn in the trial of James B. McNamara.

The copy of the testimony was furnished by W. Joseph Ford assistant district attorney, who declared the former detective's evidence in the presence of the grand jurors consisted practically of only one question and its answer.

"Was the money you paid Robert F. Bain furnished you by Clarence S. Darrow?" was the question, according to Mr. Ford.

"Yes," was Franklin's answer.

been ennobled by the example of a Washington," he continued, "if the profession of a jurist has been ennobled by a Marshall, if the profession of a statesman has been ennobled by a Webster or a Burke, surely the calling of a mechanic has been dignified and sanctified by the example of Christ."

Government Arbitration.

Extolling federal arbitration of disputes between the railroads and their employes, Presiding Judge Martin A. Knapp, of the United States commerce court, prophesied today before the National Civic Federation that such government arbitration eventually would be extended to include other forms of business where trouble affecting the public might arise.

"We can be certain, for the tendency is unmistakable," he said, "that more and more will the influence and authority of the government be extended into business pursuits which have hitherto been conducted as purely private enterprises. Broadly speaking, there are already three parties concerned in every labor dispute, the employer, the employe and the public. Unquestionably the relative interest of the public in these contentions will increase, and some plan must be devised to protect that interest without injustice to either of the other parties concerned."

SEATTLE IS VOTING TODAY.

Gill, Recalled Mayor, is Once More a Candidate.

Seattle, Wash., March 5.—Seattle today is voting for a mayor and other municipal officers. The primary on February 20 eliminated all but two candidates for each office and the contest for the mayoralty is between Hiram C. Gill, open town candidate, who was recalled last year, and George C. Cotterill, municipal ownership and single tax candidate. In the primary Gill had a plurality of more than ten thousand over Cotterill.

However, the women's clubs have come out for Cotterill, greatly improving his prospects. The socialists, who polled nearly 11,000 votes in the primary, have been exhorted by their leaders not to vote for either Cotterill or Gill.

REJECT TERMS OF THE MINERS

Anthracite Operators Turn Down Proposals for a Wage Scale.

THE BRITISH STRIKE

New York, March 5.—Anthracite coal operators in session here this afternoon decided to reject the demands of the miners for an increased pay. A committee of operators was appointed to notify union officials of the result.

WILL MEET AGAIN.

Chicago, March 5.—Representatives of the Bituminous Coal Operators' association in western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois met today with officials of the United Mine Workers of North America and it was decided that another meeting should be held in Cleveland, March 20, when the coal mining situation will be discussed.

BRITISH RAILWAYS TIED UP.

London, March 5.—Railroad workers throughout the United Kingdom continue to be discharged from their employment owing to the shortage of coal necessitating the restriction of the train service. At Newcastle this morning another 1,000 men were added to those who have been thrown out of work on account of the coal strike. The train services are being further curtailed in all parts. The cross channel service between France and England has been reduced to one steamer daily on the line between Folkestone and Boulogne.

SPANISH MINERS STRIKE.

Santander, Spain, March 5.—The workmen at the mines of San Salvador and Sateres, from which a large quantity of iron ore is exported to Great Britain, struck today. Nineteen of the men have been arrested on a charge of coercing the others to strike.

NAMED AS PALL BEARERS.

Members of Sion S. Post, G. A. R., will at their next meeting on Friday evening be called upon to adopt resolutions of respect for another comrade, the late Israel Luther, who wil be buried from his late residence on the Goshen road on Thursday and from Eel River chapel at 1 o'clock. The following comrades are announced by Commander M. T. Connett and Chaplain John Kress to act as pallbearers: John Shuler, Henry L. Williams, William Glenn, W. M. Donnell, Theodore Geller, Joseph Kickley.

INJUNCTION IS DENIED.

Washington, March 5.—An order was issued today by the commerce court denying the application for an injunction against an order of the interestate commerce commission, fixing reasonable rates for the transportation of bituminous coal from Illinois mines to Chicago and points beyond, including Milwaukee, Wis.

VESSELS STILL FAST IN ICE.

Racine, Wis., March 5.—The steamers Iowa and Racine, which became jammed in the ice several miles off Racine harbor early yesterday morning remain fast today. A tug attempting to assist the Racine was forced high upon the floes.

TEXAS FOR ROOSEVELT.

Fort Worth, Texas, March 5.—By a vote of 27 to 1 the candidacy of Col. Roosevelt was endorsed today by the Texas state republican executive committee.

DEATH CLAIMS PIONEER WOMAN

Mrs. Mary Catherine Kell Dies at Advanced Age of 84 Years.

OTHER DEATHS TODAY

Mrs. Mary Catherine Kell, widow of the late Jacob Kell and a pioneer resident of Allen county, died at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Emerich, on the Coldwater road, ten miles north of this city. Mrs. Kell's age was 83 years, 10 months and 16 days, and death was due to valvular heart disease, following an extended illness.

She was born in Pennsylvania, but came to Allen county many years ago. The death of her husband occurred eight years ago, and surviving children include Mrs. Frank Pulver, Mrs. Ellis Dunten, Mrs. John Emerich and Frederick Kell; three step-children, Solomon Kell, Hon. George V. Kell and Mrs. Theron Hatch. There are eleven grandchildren and two sisters—Mrs. William Gloyd, of Terre Haute, and Mrs. James Gilson, of Decatur, as well as a half-sister, Mrs. Sarah Randall, of Ligonier.

Funeral services Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the residence and at 10 from the Huntertown Cemetery church.

BEARMAN.

John Bearman, 17 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bearman, of Madison township, died Monday at the family home near Maples from tuberculosis.

Surviving relatives include the parents and the following brothers and sisters: Edward Bearman, of Madison township; Mrs. August Klenkie, Springfield township; Mrs. William Hazlett, Fort Wayne; Fred Bearman, Madison township; Mrs. Henry Grotrain, Madison township; Misses Elizabeth, Adeline and Matilda Bearman, of Madison township.

Funeral services at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the residence and at 2 o'clock from Emanuel Lutheran church at Soest, Rev. Rodenbeck officiating.

LAMB.

Miles Jason Lamb, of Antwerp, O., 71 years of aged, died at 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Lutheran hospital in this city from cancer, from which he had suffered for several years.

Mr. Lamb was a traveling salesman, and is survived by the widow and two daughters, Miss Pearl Lamb, of Fort Wayne, and Miss Irene Lamb, of Antwerp. There are also four sisters and a brother.

The remains were taken to Antwerp for funeral services and interment.

BRANDENBERGER.

Mrs. Rosena Brandenberger, a widow, 73 years of age, died at 6:30 o'clock this morning at the home of her son, Fred Brandenberger, 621 Holman street, from pneumonia after a brief illness.

Mrs. Brandenberger came with her son to Fort Wayne in 1889 from Germany, and had lived in this city continuously since that time. Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, Rev. Jacob Miller officiating; interment at Concordia.

Meyer.—Funeral services for John Henry Meyer will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 411 Old Fort place.

whole seemed definitely to come to the conclusion that I ought to do that task. In other words, as far as in me lies I am endeavoring to look at this matter purely from the standpoint of the public interests, of the interest of the people as a whole, and not in the least from my own standpoint.

"If I should consult only my own pleasure and interests I should most emphatically and immediately announce that I would under no circumstances run. I have had all the honor that any man can have from holding the office of president. From every personal standpoint there is nothing for me to gain either in running for the office or in holding the office once more and there is very much to lose."

STRONG FOR ROOSEVELT.

Auburn, N. Y., March 5.—Former United States Minister to Spain William Miller Collier today resigned as head of the delegation to the republican state convention because of the understanding that the delegation favored President Taft. "I believe in the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt and resign in order not to place myself in a false light," he said.

WILL PROBE SHIPPING TRUST.

Washington, March 5.—The house today unanimously passed a resolution calling for an investigation of the alleged "shipping trust" by the committee on merchant marine and fisheries.

KIMMEL JURY IS UNABLE TO AGREE

Jurors Question Reported Verdict as to Kimmel's Identity.

WAS NOT UNANIMOUS

St. Louis, March 5.—The jury in the Kimmel insurance case reported to Federal Judge Charles F. Amidon at noon today that it was unable to agree on a verdict. Judge Amidon discharged it. The jury was out seventy-three hours.

A controversy in the jury room was disclosed by a statement of Jurors McMyler and Sullivan, made to the court, in a written communication just before the discharge of the jury. This statement was that the report of Monday, declaring the claimant not to be Kimmel, was a surprise to some of the jurors, who had agreed to eliminate the claimant only "for the sake of the argument" in order to get further instructions.

Foreman Schisler insisted that the statement handed in Monday, against which none of the jurors protested at the time, represented their unanimous agreement.

The judge refused to hear further arguments from the jurors and dismissed them.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Miss Margaret Marion Johnson, daughter of Mr. Alexander Johnson, to Mr. Winthrop David Lane, son of Prof. Chester T. Lane, of this city, which took place in New York on Monday, March 4. After the first of April Mr. and Mrs. Lane will be at home at 217 East Thirty-fifth street, New York city. Until recent years this city had been the home of both bride and groom. The bride has been engaged in vocational work in New York for some months, in which she became interested through acting as secretary to her father whose connection with the National Society of Charities and Correction is well known. Mr. Lane was graduated from the department of literature at the University of Michigan and did considerable newspaper work in this city during the summer months of his college years. He is now on the editorial staff of The Survey, the leading magazine in the country representing the interests of social settlement work. Both bride and groom are regarded with more than usual favor by their many friends in this city.

Master Alton Hostettler, of 2730 South Hanna street, celebrated his seventh birthday anniversary on Saturday afternoon in an unexpected manner. About twenty-five of Alton's small friends arrived at his home to join him in playing games and in enjoying the daintily served supper that Mrs. Hostettler planned for them. Mrs. Laura Likens, an aunt of the small host, assisted Mrs. Hostettler.

LITTLE IDA COUTS FULLY RECOVERED

Kendallville Girl Underwent Remarkable Cure in Hospital at Fort Wayne.

Kendallville, Ind., March 5.—After suffering for almost her entire life and after being unable to take food in the natural way for several years, little Ida Couts, the 6-year-old daughter of James Couts, of this city, is now practically cured and according to reports received from Fort Wayne she will be brought back to this city within a few days.

When a mere babe, Miss Ida drank a quantity of lye, which burned her throat so badly that that part of her body was paralyzed. She was unable to swallow and the doctors attending her at that time were forced to make an opening in her side in order to keep her from starving to death. Daily she was fed through the opening in her side and no effort was made to have her treated until a movement was started by Mrs Marvin Kuhns about two months ago.

Charitable people of the city sympathized with the little girl and her parents and took up the work started by Mrs. Kuhns. The Elks lodge also took the matter in hand and with the assistance of others interested raised the necessary funds to pay for the treatment of the invalid. A benefit entertainment was given at the Princess theater which netted a neat sum for the aid of the little girl.

Miss Ida was placed in the St. Joseph hospital and under the care of Dr. Rosenthal she has been made a perfectly healthy child. Her throat was treated and in less than two weeks she was able to swallow solid foods. After the physician was certain that the child could take her food naturally he started treatment on her side and Saturday the opening through which she had been nourished for a number of years was closed. The little girl is now completely cured and Dr. Rosenthal states that she may be returned to her parents at any time. The members of the lodge committee of the city sent a representative to Fort Wayne yesterday to settle all hospital expenses and make preparations for bringing her home.

THE DOGS ARE AHEAD.

Bluffton, Ind., March 5.—In his report to the county auditor Trustee McCullick, of Chester, reported that dogs killed about $800 worth of sheep and other animals in his township the past year, while the dog taxes amounted to only about $150, leaving a shortage of about $60 to pay which he must draw from the surplus that may be turned in by other townships.

HAS GONE TO HUNTINGTON.

Bluffton, Ind., March 5.—Homer L. McDowell, for the past two years an employe of the Evening Banner, has resigned his position and left for Huntington, where he has accepted a position as circulation manager of the Huntington Press, the democratic organ recently started by M. H. Ormsby, in Huntington.

EDITOR WAS ENDORSED.

Marshall County Democrats for Metsker for State Office.

Plymouth, Ind., March 5.—Hon. Clay W. Metsker, editor of the Plymouth Democrat, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, gained a sweeping victory in the contest for delegates in Marshall county, notwithstanding the determined and persistant fight made against him by a few local opponents.

The entire delegation stands for Metsker and resolutions were adopted instructing the delegates to vote for him first, last and all the time.

Hon. S. N. Steven, a former member of the democratic central committee, heads the delegation and will lead the contest for Metsker in the state convention.

BOUGHT ANOTHER FARM.

Columbia City, Ind., March 5.—Joseph W. Compton, of Richland township, father of Attorney George W. Compton, of this city, has bought the Chas. G. Ferry 160 acres, in the same township which adjoined his farm. With this addition, Mr. Compton has one of the finest farms in the county. The consideration was $3,000 with possession at once.

Famous "Pint of Cough Syrup Recipe

No Better Remedy at Any Price. Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and ½ pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2½ ounces of pure Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold instantly, and will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, throat tickle, sore lungs and asthma, and an unequaled remedy for whooping cough and croup.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) is a prime favorite in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this recipe.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you.

DR. FRANK J. LENIG IS TRANSFERRED

Talented M. E. Pastor Sent by Bishops from Huntington to Connersville.

Huntington, Ind., March 5.—Dr. Frank J. Lenig, pastor of the First M. E. church here, formerly pastor of the Wayne Street M. E. church at Fort Wayne, preceding Rev. C. Claud Travis, the present pastor there, announced to his congregation Sunday morning that he would sever his connection with the local church to accept a transfer to the First church in Connersville.

The change will effect a transfer from the North Indiana conference to the Indiana conference, and the appointment to the larger church there comes through recognition of his valuable services known to the board of bishops. Instructions came through Bishop Moore of the North Indiana and Bishop McDowell of the Indiana conference.

DR. FRANK J. LENIG,
Changed by the Bishops From Huntington to Connersville.

Dr. Lenig has long been on the special transfer list in the general conference. He has been changed from conference to conference may times since he entered the ministry and to charges were special work was needed. When Dr. Lenig came to Huntington the local church was in bad financial condition. He is recognized as an excellent financier and the results of his work in Huntington are now not to be denied. The Huntington church today stands clear of indebtedness and able to meet all current demands.

Dissensions in Church.

It has been known on the outside some time that certain dissensions prevailed in the First M. E. church in Huntington. These have gradually culminated in a form of insurgency. There were those who opposed too plain preaching by the pastor. But Dr. Lenig remained the desired three years and his accomplishments here are appreciated by the bishops and they have now assigned him to a new and desirable field of operation. The change will be effected April 1. Why he will be assigned at the coming conference at Wabash has not been intimated.

The Connersville church is rated as one of the best in the Indiana conference. Connersville is a progressive city, located midway between Indianapolis and Cincinnati. There is a good church property and conditions generally are fair. Hence, Dr. Lenig did not hesitate long in accepting the offer made by the two bishops. He is satisfied with the work effected here and of the report he will make to the coming conference.

CHURCH WAS DESTROYED.

Firemen at Bryan, Ohio, Fought Fire in Zero Weather.

Bryan, Ohio, March 5.—The Bryan fire department spent five hours in the zero weather Sunday night fighting the worst fire of the winter. The East High Street Church of Christ was totally destroyed, the residence occupied by Charles H. McDaniel was badly damaged and the David Lease and Jacob Patten residences and three nearby barns were slightly burned. The total loss will reach about $6,000, partially insured. The fire originated in the rear of the Church of Christ and probably resulted from one of the two stoves used in heating the building.

AGED GOSHEN WOMAN DIES.

Goshen, Ind., March 5.—Mrs. E. J. H. Hopkins, of this place, mother of Mrs. S. B. Dustman, of New Haven, died Sunday morning at the home of her son, H. H. Hopkins, of double pneumonia, aged 80 years, 1 month and 7 days. Mrs. Hopkins was one of Elkhart county's most respected ladies, and was an excellent christian woman. Her death will be mourned far beyond the family circle, as she endeared herself to a large number of people during her long residence here, and had a vast circle of friends who will deeply mourn her death.

KENDALLVILLE SALOONS.

Kendallville, Ind., March 5.—The licenses of six Kendallville liquor dealers were renewed yesterday by the county commissioners at their March term. Those who were given renewals were Robert Fisher, Charles Gunn, C. P. Bruck, Charles Gilbert, William Hutt and J. W. Woolf. D. Ueber, Joe Leintch, Mr. Schlaterer and Mr. Pfleightner were granted licenses at Avilla.

OLD MAIL CARRIER ILL.

South Whitley, Ind., March 5.—Jacob Brower, of South Whitley, rural mail carrier for route number one is confined to his home and bed suffering from heart and kidney trouble, and grave fears are entertained for his recovery. Mr. Brower has acted as mail carrier ever since the routes were established out of that town, and his many friends will be grieved to learn of his condition.

GARRETT SURE OF NEW ROUNDHOUSE

Official Announcement Made by the B. & O.—Work Will Begin Early in April.

Garrett, Ind., March 5.—Official announcement has been made from Baltimore by General Manager A. W. Thompson, of the B. & O. railroad company, of the extensive improvements to be made in the shops of the company here, mention of which was made in the columns of The Sentinel of Saturday, February 24. The announcement only makes official facts that have heretofore been known by our citizens.

The improvements will begin the first part of April. They include the building of a mammoth round house, the largest on the B. & O. road, with the erection of a turntable to handle giant locomotives. The work will represent the expenditure of many thousands of dollars. The present shops here will be enlarged and much new machinery placed. The improvements mean a large increase in forces.

GARRETT NEWS.

Garrett, Ind., March 5.—Miss Cecely Gengler went to South Chicago to help nurse her sister, Mrs. McManus' 15-year-old daughter, who is critically ill with membranous croup.

Mrs. B. Hunsel and Mrs. J. Loth spent Sunday out in the country with Mrs. Doherty.

LYRIC THEATER

The Lyric is showing "Extravagance," one of the greatest stories of modern life that has been filmed. This picture will make you think. The other picture is an Eclair, "Strip Poker," a comedy, and it is a good one. Bessie Evans and Marie Elmore both scored big Monday. Wednesday the greatest of sensational features, "The Yeggman" will be shown; there are sixteen thrills to the foot and there are a thousand feet. Friday the greatest fire picture ever made will be shown; this picture was taken at the New York training school for firemen and is known as "Making Heroes;" it shows the New York fire department in action at a big fire, also shows the daily life of the firemen.

"Stabbed In the Back"

How Many Fort Wayne Readers Have Had Those Sudden Twinges.

Have you ever had a "crick" in the back?

Does your back ache with a dull, heavy, draggy throb?

Is it hard to straighten up after stooping?

Hard to arise from a chair or turn in bed?

Is the urine dark colored? Passages irregular?

When your kidneys need attention, use a tested kidney remedy.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has cured thousands.

Convincing proof of merit in the following statement:

Arkinson A. Jenkins, 1902 S. Calhoun street, Fort Wayne, Ind., says: "It gives me pleasure to confirm all I said regarding Doan's Kidney Pills when I publicly endorsed them in 1908. For two or three years my kidneys were disordered and I had but little control over the kidney secretions. My back ached intensely and my entire system was run down. The contents of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Meyer Bros. Co.'s drug store, corrected my trouble and proved of benefit in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

AVILLA NEWS.

Avilla, Ind., March 5.—Miss Ellen Homshire, of Kendallville, is critically ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Bortner, of that place. Little hope is entertained for her recovery. Miss Homshire spent the last year with Mrs. Lydia Hendricks, of this place.

Miss Stacia Hass served a six o'clock supper to the following young ladies last Friday evening at her home, on North Van Scoyic street: Miss Edith B. Hudson, Vera Knauer, Madge Stewart, Fern Fleightner and Minnie Crothers. The girls spent the evening in a social way with lots of good music.

Lee Allman came over from Albion Friday evening to spend the night with his parents, W. P. Allman and wife.

Ray Carver, of Defiance, spent Thursday night with his mother, Mrs. M. E. Carver, and brother, Attorney W. D. Carver.

Mrs. Eva Barr, of Kendallville, visited Avilla friends Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Carver is better after a severe illness of neuralgia.

Mrs. Bessie Kelham and daughter, Emma, returned from Ithaca, N. Y., the latter part of last week. They were accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Whetzel and son, Joseph, of that place, who will visit with the Whetzel and Baker families near this place.

Mrs. Marian Eley and sons spent Saturday shopping in Fort Wayne.

Miss Marie Campbell, living west of town, is on the sick list.

Miss Tillie Householder, of northwest of this place, is suffering with the mumps.

Miss Clara DeCamp, of Goshen, visited home folks over Sunday.

Miss Madge Stewart will return to Valparaiso Tuesday to resume her studies in music and art.

Walter Pepple spent Sunday with his mother at Stryker, Ohio.

George Irons, of Albion, spent Sunday with Orlie Beckley and wife.

Mrs. Geo. Knauer returned Saturday from a week end visit with Corunna friends.

Mrs. Leona Williams, of Fort Wayne, is a guest at the Hudson home.

Mrs. Lida Williams and daughter, Mrs. Maude Humphry were Auburn shoppers Saturday afternoon.

A COLD, LA GRIPPE, THEN PNEUMONIA

Is too often the fatal sequence, and coughs that hang on weaken the system and lower the vital resistance. R. G. Collins, Postmaster, Barnegat, N. J., was troubled with a severe la grippe cough. He says: "I would be completely exhausted after each fit of violent coughing. I bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and before I had taken it all the coughing spells had entirely ceased. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound can't be beat." It stops the cough by healing the cause. Refuse substitutes. Dreier Drug Co.

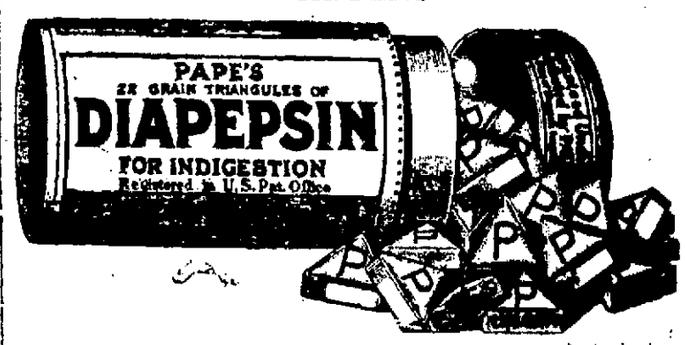
YOU WILL WONDER WHAT BECAME OF ALL THAT STOMACH DISTRESS

If your stomach is sick, sour, gassy and upset now you can surely get relief in five minutes.



Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy food upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you truly will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated so they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

THREE ARRESTS IN MONTH.

Portland Was Orderly Place During Month of February.

Portland, Ind., March 5.—Only three arrests were made by the Portland police during the month of February, according to the report just made by the department. Two of these were for public intoxication, and one for vagrancy on Sunday. But ten police calls were answered. Seventy-three tramps were sheltered over night in the city prison and two horses, neglected too long on the streets by their owners were taken up and fed. During the year which ended February 29, the arrests totaled 134, with intoxication the leading charge, 51.

A SOUTHERN COLONEL'S CALL.

On the staff of the governor of South Carolina is Col. Victor B. Cheshire. Colonel Cheshire is an editor. A few days ago a negro was arrested charged with entering the room of a white woman with intent to attack her. The negro asserts he meant only to commit robbery. As a matter of fact, he succeeded in doing neither. But just the same, under the caption, "Shame on the White Men," Colonel Cheshire, of the staff of the governor of South Carolina, printed this editorial in his newspaper:

"Shame on the white men of Anderson county that one of her pure young women must be forced to testify in court against a black brute who attempted to attack her. We are only one, but here's our hand that if the number is sufficient this lady of Deans Station will never have to attend this trial and face the black brute."

In another place in his paper the news is set forth that the crime of the negro was not so serious, and that he protested he meant not assault but to rob. Only a leader was needed to cause a mob of three hundred men, who had gathered, to lynch the black. There was no leader, so no lynching; and that's what's the matter with the colonel. The situation was potential of such circumstances as mob rule, a call for the militia, the governor's reliance on his doughty Colonel Cheshire to aid in preserving the peace and save the state's name from the stigma of a lynching, and the futility of the martial effort. Colonel Cheshire doubtless would have lead his troopers against the jail. But the colonel and the colonel's newspaper furnishes a good many reasons why there are so many lynchings in the south, of which a very large percentage are discovered to be unfortunate but unavoidable mistakes.

Major Beecher B. Ray, the "political paymaster," cannot be dismissed from the army even if the house of representatives passes a resolution recommending his dismissal. Neither President Taft nor the war department can dismiss him, no matter how much this action might be desired, as the facts in his case as they now present themselves give no legal grounds for such action. The president cannot dismiss an officer of the army without court martial, and in the case of Major Ray there can be no court martial unless the civilian paymaster's clerk whose home is said to have been wronged by the officer is willing to appear against him. This the clerk is not willing to do, as he and his wife have become reconciled, and he does not wish to risk his future by becoming embroiled with a man of "Ray's political power." There is no law on the statute books to compel the clerk to testify against Major Ray, so the case ends there so far as legal proceedings are concerned. There are other offences for which Major Ray might be brought before a court martial were it not for the fact that they happened so long ago that the statute of limitations applies to them.

"No bar against colored men." That was one of the heavy lines in the poster spread copiously over Washington announcing the celebration of Champ Clark's birthday one night this week. Southern gentlemen in congress resented this special distinction of colored men and the line has been blotted out. But Champ and his friends know a thing or two. There are pretty nearly as many colored men in Missouri as in Alabama, and they vote, too, which in Alabama they do not. That Missouri colored vote, that Kansas colored vote, that Oklahoma colored vote and in considerable part that Kaintuck colored vote can get counted—especially if it votes the democratic ticket. Champ might be the nominee.

What the new but insufficient president of Mexico needs is a backbone. Old man Diaz took the only real serviceable one out of the country with him when he quit Mexico, and if Senor Madero is showing his own at its best, the sooner old man Diaz brings his home again the better it will be for Mexico. It is tolerable patent that the trouble distracting Mexico today is not dissatisfaction with the government, but a purpose to loot. For months armed bands of freebooters and bandits have been raiding the cities and towns and haciendas wherever there was no federal force to oppose them. This lawless state of affairs has spread until it has taken on the proportions and assumed the character of a revolt. It isn't political; it's criminal. If Madero as president could show half the courage and capacity he showed as rebel leader he would soon pull his land out of this messy state.

It appears some of the strikers at Lawrence had appealed to the ambassadors who represent at Washington some of the countries from which the mill town aliens had come to this land to work, the purpose being to make protest against the brutality of their employers, the Lawrence police and the Massachusetts militia. Ignorant, were they? Most likely; very ignorant. But they have touched a possibility that may rise up to plague the country and some of the big industrial concerns some time. Not all of the roughshod foreigners who work in the mills have thought it worth while to qualify even to vote.

A city forester will save his keep in old trees that can be made to "come back." He will do it again in preventing the butchery of trees that need only humane treatment. And again in routing the parasites that have begun to infest the shade trees of Fort Wayne. He will put into the work of setting out new trees of the right kind and taking care of them properly the value of his services many fold. Fort Wayne cannot afford not to have a skilled and trained and scientific tree man.

London suffragettes want to burn the general postoffice, the British museum and perhaps the parliamentary buildings and Westminster Abbey to prove that they are entitled to vote. Rawther interesting lot of suffragettes they are, and they mean business—a good deal like the Gordon rioters did, something over a hundred years ago.

Congressman Cline will carry the Twelfth district very handsomely this fall against any man the opposition may nominate. He has won his place by hard work, diligent service to his constituents and punctual regard for his duties in Washington.

Perhaps there are some more letters where that last one came from, and perhaps it may be regarded as no longer confidential. War absolves belligerents many an obligation.

RAISING THE VEIL FROM CANCER.

(Grand Rapids Press.)

Cancer, deadly foe of mankind, after defying from behind its wall of mystery the medical world through many ages, is finally being driven into the open. Its one protecting bulwark of secrecy is being battered down by the persistent, determined attacks of science and soon the dread malady will be forced to beat a retreat. Once its causes and its nature are revealed to its assailants it will no longer be invulnerable.

As told in an article in the Evening Press yesterday, such distinct progress has been made in the study of cancer during the last four years that now the leading authorities believe that the announcement of a cure will come soon. It has been found that the malady is probably caused by bacteria of a Y shape; that it gets into the body from the outside through scratches, pricks, bruises, wounds or irritated spots and that if all the tumor tissue is removed absolute recovery should follow. The next step will be to discover something that will kill the bacteria.

Credit for the progress made against cancer must be given to the most beneficent of modern philanthropies, the endowed laboratory. Thanks to these laboratories, located in all the leading countries, great scientists are enabled to devote all their energy and all their time to the study of specific diseases without being handicapped in their work by bother over ways and means or anything else. Through the generosity of individuals or of nations they are placed in splendidly equipped laboratories where, undisturbed, they can devote themselves to the cause of guarding humanity from maladies that now prey upon it.

An endowed hospital is a noble work, for it is a means of restoring health to thousands. But an endowed laboratory is even greater, for just one important discovery—such as a cure for cancer—is a priceless boon to all mankind.

SUBSTITUTE FOR DIVORCE.

(The Survey.)

Is there a little row in a family in your neighborhood? It would be impolite to ask if there is a tiny rift in your own marital flute. The answer in New York, Chicago and Washington is not a trip to Reno, but a trip to the Domestic Relations court, even though the time of arbitration seems long past.

The Domestic Relations court is primarily the poor woman's tribunal for almost always the complainants are women or the agents of charitable societies interested in deserted or wronged women or children. Usually the people who come for help of the court if abandoned would become public charges, so the state to protect itself from this financial burden provides counsel for complainants.

"In New York failure to support a wife is a misdemeanor, the maximum penalty for which is six months in the workhouse. The Domestic Relations court by specializing on this subject is expected to lead to reforms that will make for a more complete and just system of domestic relations jurisprudence. The court itself today is a boon. Any woman can go to it, tell the clerk her troubles and in a few minutes, if there is any case at all, repeat her story from the witness chair. All the proceedings against recreant husbands are without cost to the complainants.

That we have not adopted sooner and more widely such a system of courts similar in methods to the conciliatory courts of France through which all domestic difficulties pass before any serious divorce, abandonment or non-support case can enter the courts proper, is a commentary on the American policy of laissez-faire in a matter that makes for the happiness and welfare of women and children.

COAL STRIKE IN BRITAIN.

Wages.

Philadelphia Leader: "The only real issue is one of wages and that ought to be capable of settlement without resort to the costly expedient of a strike."

Situation.

Baltimore News: "It is not a comfortable situation in which England finds herself this week."

Agitation.

Boston Transcript: "What makes the prospect of a great British coal strike particularly disquieting is the growing manifestation of the federative principle in labor agitation."

Endurance.

Alois Rieg, of No. 113 Wall street, held the lucky number, 177, which drew the capital prize, a valuable city lot, in Sam, Pete & Max's grand benefit enterprise.

Dr. C. B. Stemen and his son, Dr. Charles Stemen, went to Kansas City last night. The young doctor will swing his shingle to the breeze there. His father will return in a few days.

L. P. Huntoon, civil engineer, has presented to Hon. J. K. Edgerton a finely-executed map of the ditches of Allen county. Their total length is a fraction over 497 miles. This includes the great Little River system.

The firemen are putting up the new alarm boxes and very soon Chief Hilbrecht will have the electric circuits completed. An occasional tap of the center house fire bell sends the horses flying to their places.

Col. George Ortlieb purchased the store building adjoining the Tremont house on Columbia street, the other day, for $4,000. He refused $5,000 for his purchase yesterday, and did not have to go to Duluth, either.

Last evening the checker games for the championship of the city played at Buck's cigar store were won by George Buck and Fred Ervin over D. W. McLetchie and Frank Gruber. Twenty-four games were played, the former winning ten games and the latter four. Ten draw games were played.

The fourth annual meeting of the Fort Wayne Bicycle club was held last night and the following officers were elected: President, Al Vogel; captain, L. Ohnhaus; secretary, T. F. Thieme; treasurer, John E. Ross; lieutenants, D. H. Caldwell and C. J. Scheiman; club committee, W. D. Bostick and Sam D. Hanna; bugler, C. P. Swain; color bearer, S. D. Hanna.

TAKE OPTION ON SITE FOR SCHOOL

Moose Select a Beautiful Spot Along St. Joe River.

LOCATION IS IDEAL

Committees of Fort Wayne lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, have taken options upon a total of some 227 acres lying along the St. Joe river, five miles north of Fort Wayne, as a site for the industrial school to be established by the supreme lodge of the order, for which Fort Wayne is making a strenuous fight with excellent promise of success.

The tract is one mile south of Robison park, on the east bank of the St. Joe, immediately across the river from the car line and connected with the trolley line by two bridges. It includes the farms of George L. Ashley, T. H. Ashley and Robert Eby, surrounding the ten acres now known as Germania park, and it is understood that the committee has been given assurance that rather than see the plan fail, an option will be given on the park tract, also. The Moose have indicated that they must have the entire tract in order to meet the needs of the big industrial school, which is in contemplation. The land lies between the Leo road and the river and extends from what is known as the paper mill bridge road, northward to include the Ashley tracts and the greater part of the old Riverview farm, formerly owned by the McDonald and the Coombs interests. George L. Ashley & Sons aided the Moose in closing negotiations for the tract.

More Aid is Pledged.

Additional strength was given to the movement to secure the school for Fort Wayne yesterday when the Commercial club pledged its aid to the project, and at the meeting of the lodge tonight an invitation will be extended the supreme officers to come to Fort Wayne and inspect the spot chosen for the school if it is voted to Fort Wayne. It is planned to send a strong committee to Chicago, March 19, to present the matter to the supreme body. This committee will include, among others, Senator S. B. Fleming, Louis Centlivre, Ernest W. Cook, Carl Yaple, I. M. Hellenstein, Herman Bueter, Harry Kennerk, Lawrence Bauer, J. E. Ford, Frank Freiberger, Louis Gillion, Harry Keplinger, Harry Hilgemann, David C. Stout and Frank A. Emrick. Charles Biederwolf will also accompany the committee as a representative of the Commercial club of Fort Wayne.

Work is to go forward with renewed energy in the effort to raise the remainder of the fund necessary to secure the school.

Mr. Stout Elated.

D. C. Stout, who is to be credited with swinging Supreme Organizer Davis and Supreme Secretary Brandon into line for Fort Wayne, came home last evening highly elated over the success of his trip and he has been kept busy receiving the congratulations of the local membership. Before starting for home Mr. Stout was handed a letter from Mr. Davis, in which the latter said:

"I am glad to see the progress you are making in Fort Wayne toward securing the site for the industrial schools, the home for the widows and orphans and the home for the aged and infirm members of the order. There are several large propositions up at this time, but I am satisfied if you are able to present to the supreme council the proposition you outlined to me, there is no question in my mind but that you will be able to secure the school.

"Personally, I think Fort Wayne, and the proposition it has to offer, is better than any other proposition submitted by any other city thus far. You will understand that the bringing of the several institutions to your city means the bringing of the supreme secretary's office, the official paper, "The Call of the Moose," which will have a circulation of a million when my term of office expires, and the bringing of the organization department headquarters.

"The bank book shows that the clearing for January amounted to $70,000. This will give you some idea of the amount of business done by the supreme lodge, which will greatly increase when the offices of the supreme secretary and the organization department combine. You will understand that the organization will double itself in membership during the next two years.

"I am very much pleased with the progress that the Fort Wayne lodge has made since its organization during the last two years and believe the spirit exhibited by lodge No. 200 would be a good lodge to have in the home city of the college."

A WOMAN'S NERVES

Dr. Baker in "The Gentle Lady."

A woman's nerves affect her spirits, her health and her beauty. Aenemic blood—blood lacking in red corpuscles—is usually the cause of "bad nerves." Incorrect metabolism results in depleting the blood of its proper constituents.

Metabolism is the process of assimilation and elimination of the food and drink consumed. In other words metabolism means the correct renewal and waste of the cells and tissues of the body. Seven women out of ten are aenemic, this is plainly evident by their lack of beauty. A perfectly healthy woman whose metabolism is correct is invariably plump, solid of flesh and beautiful. She will have pink cheeks, red lips, sparkling eyes and a wealth of waving hair. Such a woman is beautiful even though her features are irregular.

We physicians in recent years have found through the research of a great German chemist a peculiar fluid containing no alcohol or narcotic drugs, called "metabolinum," which if drunk twice daily for a few weeks and thereafter two or three times a week, will restore or correct metabolism. The correction of metabolism is all important if health and beauty are to be maintained. Scores of feminine ills are banished and forgotten as soon as the metabolism is restored. Unfortunately for the masses, the fluid, metabolinum, is too expensive. One dollar and twenty-five cents is charged by leading pharmacists in the larger cities for one pint of the concentrated metabolinum, but this when diluted with water makes fully one gallon. A wineglass twice daily for a few weeks often results in a wonderful change of the system. The wealthy classes in Europe and many famous actors, actresses, singers, musicians and society people are drinking this fluid two or three times a week to keep the nervous system correct and to preserve the lines and color of real beauty, which is often the chief asset of professional man or woman. Price, of course, is never considered by such people, as they are prone to "get what they want when they want it." In conclusion, if man or woman wants health and beauty, color, vitality and strength, the metabolism of the body must first be corrected and then kept so.

TEMPLE THEATER

Peoptle who enjoy vaudeville and good vaudeville at that will not fil to see the bill at the Temple this week for it is one of the best that house has shown this season. There is not a poor thing on the list from the opening of the La Kelliors, two young people who present some pretty as well as clever balancing and similar stunts, to the pictures at the close. With Lambert and Williams, who sing and do some talking and dancing the bright particular star is a tiny child who is about as cunning as could be found. The child sings a verse of a song, kisses his tiny hands to the audience and vanishes. It looks very easy and natural, so much so you forget to wonder why so tiny a baby is performing on the stage. Of course Annie Abbott, the metaphysical marvel, is the great attraction of the week and she is a wonder. Besides the marvelous power she possesses to withstand weight directed against herself and to perform feats of strength usually attributed only to horse power, Miss Abbott is charming. She is pretty and intelligent and in her pink dress, ribbons, hose and tiny shoes, looks like a child. In spite of the tugging and pushing Miss Abbott gets during the efforts made to move her when she doesn't want to be moved, she comes through the struggle without a ribbon ruffled.

One laugh-maker of the bill is Pete Lawrence and company presenting "The Fresh Freshman." It is what its name indicates, a classic in slang. Mr. Lawrence is the slang, also the classic one. He certainly gets off a line of slang and so fast the audience can't keep up. He tells one brief story about the humpback who played half-back and how in the game someone tried to get the hump off the back of the half-back and more lingo like that. Mr. Lawrence is very clever. Another laughter is the one-act comedy by Frank Rae and assistants. The playlet is nomed "Bottle 6-40-9." The story is not so new as its presentation. The bottle idea is clever. Whoever drinks out of it tells the absolute truth. Frank Rae is the chief character and his acting is really artistic. The musical act this week is a wonder. Two young men, Allen and White, present novelties in whistling that were beautiful and astonishing, even if one has heard them before, as they are late of Lew Dockstader's minstrels. The musical extravaganza, "Cinderella," is an elaborate act with pretty music, beautiful costuming and elaborate setting. There are four scenes, several pretty girls and some good singing besides considerable comedy in the act.

RIVAL EXPLORERS RACE TO SOUTH POLE.

CAPTAIN SCOTT.

CAPTAIN AMUNDSEN

Captain Robert F. Scott, at the head of a British expedition, and his rival, Captain Roald Amundsen, commanding a Norwegian party of explorers, are expected at any moment to report the discovery of the South Pole. It is a keen race between the two parties representing the two countries, Norway and England, and London awaits daily some definite news from Captain Scott. Both men have had years of experience in Arctic regions and are well prepared to undergo all hardships attending these expeditions.

Pastors Announce Withdrawal From Pact Not to Marry Them.

San Diego, Cal., March 5.—The Rev. Clarence J. Harris, pastor of the Unitarian church of this city, has announced his withdrawal from the pact of the Ministerial association of San Diego not to marry divorced persons. The agreement was entered into last December. The Rev. W. E. Crabtree, of the Central Christian church, also announced he will ignore the agreement.

"Our Personal Guarantee to all Skin Sufferers"

DREIER DRUG CO.

We have been in business in this town for some time and we are looking to build up trade by always advising our patrons right.

So when we tell you that we have found the eczema remedy and that we stand back of it with the manufacturer's iron clad guarantee, backed by ourselves you can depend upon it that we give our advice not in order to sell a few bottles of medicine to skin sufferers, but because we know it will help our business if we help our patrons.

We keep in stock and sell all the well known skin remedies. But we will say this: If you are suffering from any kind of skin trouble, eczema, psoriasis rash or tetter, we want you to try a full size bottle of D. D. D. Prescription. And, if it does not do the work, this bottle will cost you nothing. You alone to judge.

Again and again we have seen how a few drops of this simple wash applied to the skin, takes away the itch instantly. And the cures all seem to be permanent.

D. D. D. Prescription made by the D. D. D. Laboratories, of Chicago, is composed of thymol, glycerine, oil of wintergreen and other healing, soothing, cooling ingredients. And if you are just crazy with itch, you will feel soothed and cooled, the itch absolutely washed away the moment you applied this D. D. D.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this remedy to a skin sufferer here and there and we want you to try it now on our positive no-pay guarantee. For sale by Drier Drug Co.

IN THE CITY'S CHURCHES

ANOTHER PASTOR TO LEAVE CITY

Rev. J. H. McCartney Accepts Call to Church at Waynesburg, Pa.

GOES EARLY IN APRIL

Rev. J. H. McCartney, the pastor of the West Creighton Avenue Church of Christ, announced to his congregation at

REV. J. H. M'CARTNEY,
Present Pastor of West Creighton Avenue Church of Christ.

the services held last Sunday that he had accepted a call extended to him by the First Christian church at Waynesburg, Pa., to become the pastor of the congregation and asked for his release from the charge here, which was regretfully accepted.

Rev. Mr. McCartney, in response to a request, visited Waynesburg a few weeks ago, preaching there at the Sunday services. The visit resulted in a call being extended him and after returning home he decided on its acceptance. He will begin his pastorate in that city early in April, removing from here with his family the first week of that month.

The church at Waynesburg is one of the best in that section of the state, with a large congregation and in a flourishing conddition. He feels it offers him better opportunities for his ministerial work and for that reason he accepted. Waynesburg is the seat of the county and is about fifty miles from Pittsburg. Rev. Mr. McCartney is now on his third year as pastor of the church here. He has done splendid work and the congregation is in a prosperous condition every way. He is a pulpit speaker of ability and has been especially prominent in Sunday school work throughout the county, delivering addresses at many of the township institutes held under the direction of the County Sunday School Union, of which he is an officer.

DEDICATION OF NEW BUILDING

Impressive Ceremony to Take Place Thursday at Sacred Heart Academy.

BISHOP TO OFFICIATE

The dedication of the new additional building of the Sacred Heart academie, at Academie Station, a few miles north of Fort Wayne, will take place on Thursday morning at 9:00 o'clock, Rt. Rev. Herman J. Alerding, the bishop, officiating, and in attendance will be the Catholic clergy of Fort Wayne and a number of others throughout the diocese, the plans for the event having been arranged by the Sisters of the Holy Cross and the Rev. Joseph A. Lynn, the pastor of St. Vincent's church and chaplain at the academy.

The visiting priests will include the venerable Father Adam, chaplain at Tipton; the Rev. Edward Mungovan, of Arcola; the Rev. James Durham, of Dunkirk; the Rev. Norbert Felden, of Monroeville; the Rev. Michael P. Louen, of Besancon; the Rev. John C. Keller, of Hartford City, and the Rev. Gustave Hottenroth, of Goshen.

The new building at Sacred Heart academie is a splendid addition to the time-honored educational institution and will double its capacity. It has been erected at an approximate cost of nearly $40,000. The edifice is four stories in height, is constructed of brick and is handsomely finished and equipped throughout. Frank Allen, of this city, provided plans and specifications and the general contract was filled by Michael Kinder, also of Fort Wayne.

Besides the chapel the new building provides spacious study halls, a recreation room, dining hall, studio, class rooms, private rooms and two large dormitories. Next season extensive improvements will be made in the old building and the old study hall will be renovated and devoted to the use of vocal pupils. The students now attending Sacred Heart academie number fifty and with the increased accommodations a larger number will enter the institution a season hence.

The chapel will contain three altars, though only the main altar is now in position. It is of fine Carrara marble and its donors were a number of the diocesan clergy. Following the dedicatory services Thursday morning mass will be celebrated and a short sermon will likely be given by the Rt. Rev. Bishop. The Holy Cross sisters, who conduct the academie have their mother-house at St. Mary's, Notre Dame, Ind., and the efficient work of this great religious community is widely known. Several Fort Wayne young women are among the students at the excellent academie north of the city.

CATHOLIC PARISH CHANGE.

Hartford City Will Be a Parish in Itself.

St. John's Catholic parish, including Hartford City and Montpelier and under the pastorate of Father John Keller, is to be changed and Hartford City will constitute a parish in itself with the priest giving his entire attention to the work. Heretofore Rev. Keller has divided his time between Hartford City and Montpelier. Beginning some time in July the Montpelier church will be placed in a parish including Bluffton, where a congregation has been organized, with a priest to look after both.

Father Keller will devote his entire attention to the church at Hartford City and it is likely that instead of the one morning service as formerly held there will be masses at 8 and 10 o'clock.

SOON FOLLOWS HUSBAND.

Chicago, March 5.—Mrs. Herbert L. Swift, widow of Herbert L. Swift, died of pleurisy today at a hotel here. Her husband was a son of Gustavus F. Swift, Chicago packer. A few days ago a postmortem examination of his body was made to discover whether causes other than heart disease resulted in his death on a train near Milwaukee last October.

"Dead Broke Just Like a Hobo"

"I'm dead broke just like a Hobo," said A. H. Costa, a full blooded Crow Indian as he posed for The Sentinel camera in the office of Capt. Henry Stoll at the Pennsylvania station this morning.

"I can not tell you my Indian name, and anyhow I don't care much about it. It's been so long that I am known as Costa that it's best to put it just like that."

Costa is one of a delegation of five men from his tribe who started from Montana last week for Washington to enter a protest against the opening of the Crow reservation of about three million acres which is under contemplation by the United States government.

"This land is all under cultivation," said Costa, "and the Indians own it and have been improving it for several years and at the same time their condition is improved. There are 1,750 of my people interested in this movement and we are trying to stop any steps that may be taken to take possession of our land."

Costa's home is at Pryor, Montana, where he is a farmer and he was elected as delegate because he is one of the best educated and most progressive of his tribesmen. He speaks good English with just the slightest accent to show that it has not always been his tongue and in appearance he is thoroughly Indian.

Dark of complexion, erect and with two braids of long black hair hanging over his shoulders, reserved and with a keen sense of humor that appealed to him under conditions that most people would regard more seriously he talked freely of the plans to retain his land. He is evidently thoroughly in touch with conditions and says he hopes his delegation will persuade the powers to leave his people unmolested.

When his train arrived in Fort Wayne early this morning he got out on a foraging trip and failed to take his hat, coat or shoes and after the train had pulled out Patrolman John Terry found him in a rather confused state. He was without funds and the cold air was nipping him and causing some distress.

His tickets and his money were with another member of the party and he was taken in charge by one of the members of the patrol force of the Pennsylvania. A telegram was sent to Crestline with instructions to leave his luggage and his ticket and a supply of money there and he left at noon and will arrive in Washington only a few hours behind his party.

"How do you want to make my picture, just like a wild savage?" he asked. When told he would be pictured just as he was he permitted a photograph to be taken. There was nothing Indian about his dress but a pair of moccasins that he had slipped on to make traveling more comfortable.

66 APPEALS FOR AID IN FEBRUARY

Summary of Associated Charities Work for the Month.

SIXTEEN NEW CASES

"The Associated Charities received 66 applications for assistance during the month of February," said General Secretary O. E. Mohler today. "Of these sixteen were new cases and 50 recurrent applications. All but three were residents of Fort Wayne, 40 having been families in which there are children, the totall number representing 106 adults and 140 children.

"At the men's labor yard 8 persons were offered work, of whom three worked one or more times during the month, making the per cent of those who accepted work 37.5. Six women were given tickets to the women's work room and temporary employment was found in four instances.

Aid in the necessitous cases was secured through the Fort Wayne Relief Union, the township trustees, the Elks, the Visiting Nurse League, the Y. P. S. C. E. union, the City Coal Dealers' association and private individuals. Two were referred to societies in other cities. Sixty-one calls were made by the general secretary, and 90 telephone calls and 86 personal calls were received at the office.

LONG STRIKE IS ENDED.

Mine Workers and Operators in West Close Stubborn Struggle.

Denver, Col., March 5.—By an agreement entered into today by officers of district No. 15, United Mine Workers of America, and officials of the American Fuel company, the strike of the northern coal fields, which has existed for nearly two years, virtually is settled so far as the eight mines of this company are concerned.

As a result about 300 men will return to work in Louisville and Lafayette tomorrow and nearly 1,000 will return to work in the northern field within ten days. Under the agreement the men are given an increase of three cents a ton on the run of mine coal and of five per cent. on day work. They asked for an increase of 5.55 per cent. on all work.

NETTED ABOUT $4,000.

Final Settlements Are Being Made in Shrine Show Enterprise.

Arthur F. Hall, chairman of the finance committee, said today that Mizpah temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, would realize about $4,000 from its production of "Are You a Mason?" early in February. The expense of the enterprise was about $2,500, so that total receipts from the sale of seats and from the program were in excess of $6,000. Final settlements are now being made by the committee in charge. The funds will be used to finance the trip of the band and the patrol to the imperial council meeting at Los Angeles in May.

TRUANCY CURED IN LOS ANGELES

ATTENDANCE IS HIGH

Los Angeles, March 5.—Through an entirely original idea of teaching work and play, the board of education is fast reducing the work of the juvenile court in passing on truancy cases. The idea, as suggested by Prof. E. J. Lickley, has reached the stage where there is now an average attendance of 99 per cent. for the entire year, in special ungraded schools made up of obstreperous boys.

The schools were started as an experiment following the assertion of W. L. Bodine, supervisor of compulsory education in Chicago, that there were more truants in Los Angeles than any other city in the United States.

"We had to do something to reduce the number of boys going before the juvenile court," said Professor Lickley, head of the department of compulsory education.

"There seemed but one cure for the trouble, and we have at last found it. The remedy for such cases lies in grouping the boys in small classes, never more than fifteen to a room, and putting them in charge of a man instructor who is in sympathy with the work. Not only must he know how to deal with boys, but he must be proficient in athletics to the extent that he can educate the boys in play as well as work."

Quoting statistics as to the attendance of the five schools for boys that have been in operation for some time, Prof. Lickley said that in the year previous to the establishment of the school fifty-nine cases were before the juvenile court; the second year the number was reduced to thirty; for the third year the number was reduced to three, and it has never exceeded that number since. In the present year not a single case has necessitated the attention of the court.

"The school was conducted on the theory that if conditions are made right the boy will prefer to attend school rather than to play truant," continued Prof. Lickley. "And the remarkable feature of the work is that we have risen from the worst city in the United States to a point where but two other cities, Denver and Toledo, rank with us."

The schools where the special work is carried on are Vernon avenue, Santa Fe avenue, Solano avenue, Grafton street and Olive street. The sixth school will be opened at Annandale, with Clifford McKnight, formerly in charge of the Vernon avenue school, at its head.

SOCIETY

The members of the Isawa club invited a few intimate friends to meet with them and Mrs. Adam LaMar this afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. F. Y. Gross. Mrs. LaMar was the honor guest. Mrs. Gross planned a little ahead of time and made a St. Patrick party out of it so far as decorations and other details were concerned. After a game of bridge with tally cards that were pictures of pretty Irish lads and lassies to distract attention, the company was invited to be seated at one table. In the center of the table was a basket of green carnations and fern and smilax trailed on either side of the basket the length of table. At each plate was a favor of either a hat, a potato or a pig of papier mache, filled with candy. There were shamrock place cards and Irish flags, and when the delicious supper was served, the salad was served on a bed of green with a surprising number of green foods beside it while other things, green ice cream and cakes with flags sticking in them, all bore the suggestion of the seventeenth day of the month. Everybody enjoyed a delightful time.

Mrs. H. O. Wilson visited with friends in Huntington today.

Mrs. Harry Quicksell entertained the South Side Bridge club this afternoon.

Miss Louise Metzger, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. C. Gocke, returned today to her home in Huntington.

Miss Charlotte Smick, of Jackson street, has gone to Kenton, O., to reside permanently with her grandmother.

Mrs. Roderick I. Speer and children are visiting relatives in Lansing, Mich.

Miss Belle Flick left last evening for Greenville, S. C., to spend a fortnight with relatives.

Mrs. Arthur Miller, of 1017 Cottage avenue, has gone to Covington, Ind., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan.

Mrs. Edith Andrews, of Lakeside, entertained her son, Harry, of Cleveland, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Uhlahns have returned to Fond-du-Lac, Wis., after a brief visit here with relatives.

Mrs. L. P. Jefferson has gone to Norfolk, Va., to make a visit of several weeks.

Miss Nellie Wilt, of Douglas avenue, is entertaining the Misses Rice, of Columbus, O.

Misses Anna Forester and Nora Honeick have returned from a visit in Lafayette with W. H. Forester and H. Heine, students at Purdue.

Mrs. William Meyer, of Meyer avenue, is expected home this week from Los Angeles, Cal., where she has been on a three months' visit.

Mrs. Frances Helmer, of the Lutheran hospital, went to Chicago today to make a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Roger Frisby and family.

Mrs. S. M. Foster and Mrs. Fred McCulloch and daughter, Betty, have returned from a trip to Florida and other southern points.

Mrs. Frank Magers, of 1045 Swinney avenue, has returned from Covington, Ky., where she spent a week with her sister and niece, Mrs. M. Ohneck and Miss Velma Ohneck.

Mrs. E. F. Needham, of Springfield, Ill., who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell, a week, has returned to her home. She was accompanied to Springfield by her sister, Miss Margaret Bell.

There will be a meeting of the Jewish Ladies' Aid society tomorrow evening with Mrs. Louis Schefman, 748 East Wayne street, to make arrangements for the annual dance the society will give at Miss Hanker's on March 7.

Mrs. O. E. Maxwell entertained Mrs. Adam LaMar, Mrs. James A. Graham, Miss Minnie Graham, Mrs. R. F. Lyons and Mrs. Hayes Glass. The party had refreshments afterwards at Aurentz's store.

Mrs. Timothy Foohey, of Douglas avenue, entertained the Martha Washington Pedro club this afternoon. There were flowers and tally cards suggestive of the name of the club that the members, who number enough to make three table of players at the card game, enjoyed.

Goeglein—Harper.

Mr. Edward D. Goeglein, son of Mr. John H. Goeglein, deputy treasurer of Allen county, was married in Kendallville to Miss Virginia Belle Harper, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harper, of that city, on Saturday, March 2. The hour of the ceremony was 6 o'clock in the evening and the wedding took place at the home of the bride. Rev. Paul Miller, of St. Paul's Lutheran church, of this city, performed the ceremony. Miss Edna Gorrell furnished the wedding music. The bride was beautifully gowned in white messaline. An elaborate wedding supper was served after the marriage service. Carnations were used to decorate the bride's table and the rooms. Among the wedding guests were the bridegroom's father, Mr. John H. Gorrell, Misses Irene and Emma Goeglein, Mr. and Mrs. George Goeglein, Mr. Richard Bishop and Mr. Henry Bruggeman, all of this city. The bride and groom will make their home with his father at 2426 St. Joe boulevard, this city. Mr. Goeglein is a machinist at Bowser's and is a worthy and estimable young man.

Mrs. Catherine Meyers, of New Haven, entertained at dinner on Sunday in honor of the marriage of her daughter, Alice Catherine Meyers to Mr. Emery L. Merriman, whose wedding took place on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of the First M. E. church, Rev. J. K. Cecil performed the ceremony. There were present at the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Merriman, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dedolph, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyers and sons, Harold and Walter, and Master Pearl Stretmatter, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Meyers and Otto Meyers, of New Haven.

STATELY DINNER DRESSES.

Two very stately gowns for a matron are illustrated. Richly embroidered ninon over white satin forms the square train of one. The high waisted bodice is composed of white ninon lace, finished off with jewelled shoulder straps. The other gown is of satin, draped with sequin embroidered chiffon and silk net. A wing and bow of lace give an effective finish to the corsage.

Baked Macaroni.

Boil and rinse the macaroni. Have ready one half as much white sauce. Fill a greased dish with alternate layers of macaroni and sauce. Cover the top with dry bread crumbs mixed with a little melted butter and brown in a hot oven.

Biscuit Tortoni.

Boil slowly together one cupful and a half of water and the same amount of sugar; do not stir, but test occasionally. When the syrup begins to thicken dip in a fork and let the syrup run off the tines; when the drops in falling spin a fine thread an inch long take off at once, beat the yolks of six eggs until very light, pour the syrup over them and set back over the fire in a double boiler. Beat continuously with an egg whip until the mixture makes a custard which will coat the back of a spoon. Strain into a large bowl, stand in cool water and beat until perfectly cold. It should be very light and spongy. Add one tablespoonful of vanilla, four tablespoonfuls of sherry, two tablespoonfuls of brandy and one pint of thick cream which has been beaten to a stiff froth. Fill paper cases with the mixture, sprinkle the top of each with fine stale macaroon crumbs and place in an ice cave. This is a square tin box fitted with shelves and a water tight cover. Surround with ice and salt and let stand for fully four hours that the mixture may be thoroughly frozen.

PAPER BAG COOKING

Great System Perfected by M. Soyer, Famous London Chef.

TWO DINNER MENUS.

By Martha McCulloch Williams.

Here is a dinner menu, easy but nourishing, not so costly, and capable of being prepared, cooked, and served inside two hours:

Roast Beef, Stuffed Rolled Round
Sliced Potatoes Baked Apples
Cold Slaw
Banana Puffs
Black Coffee Salted Peanuts

Have the round cut rather long and as thick as need be. Butter it on both sides, salt and pepper lightly, cover the upper side with bread crumb stuffing seasoned with onion, roll up, tie and seal in well-greased bag with a lump of butter or clarified dripping and a spoonful of water. Put in a hot oven for three minutes, slack heat, and cook until done, allowing fifteen to twenty minutes to the pound. If tomatoes are at hand, put one or two, peeled and sliced, in with the meat. The gravy will be better and the meat itself more piquant.

Slice peeled potatoes thin, drop in cold water, drain out, put in a greased bag after sprinkling very lightly with salt, add a little extra grease, seal and cook fifteen to thirty minutes in a fairly hot oven, the time depending on the quantity in the bag.

Wash the apples well, but do not peel, cut out specks and bruises, core, fill the bottom of the core-space with a lump of butter, over which pile sugar, and add a bit of cinnamon. A clove stuck in the side may take the place of the cinnamon. Seal inside a well-greased bag, and bake eighteen to twenty minutes in a fairly hot oven.

Make cold slaw in the usual way, and the salted peanuts as follows, after blanching and drying them: Put in a thickly-buttered bag, set in a very hot oven for half minute, then reduce the heat three-quarters, and leave nuts to brown for ten minutes longer. They will come out crisp and beautiful, needing only a sprinkling of salt.

To make the banana puffs, roll out good puff paste a quarter-inch thick and cut it in squares six inches across. Cover half of each square diagonally with bananas sliced thin and soaked for half an hour in sugar and lemon bag and bake twelve minutes in a hot oven. Bananas, always cheap, and among the most nourishing of the fruits, ought to be more used in cookery.

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar—made from grapes

Here is another good meal for a winter day:

Pork Tenderloin, Roasted with Sweet Potatoes
Cabbage Pudding Stewed Carrots
Celery
Apple Dumplings, Cider Sauce
Coffee Cheese Crackers

Have the tenderloins split lengthwise and cut them in halves. Wipe with a clean, damp cloth, rub over with butter or dripping, season lightly with salt and pepper, and lay in a well-greased bag along with raw sweet potatoes, peeled and halved, or quartered if very large. Add a lump of fat, butter or dripping, rolled in a little flour, also a tablespoonful of water. Seal bag and cook in a hot oven thirty-five minutes to an hour, according to the quantity of food in the bag. Slack that after five minutes. Slow, steady cooking makes the meat tender, yet full of flavor.

Choose a tender cabbage for the pudding. Shred it fine, then drop in boiling salted water and cook uncovered at full boil, ten minutes. Drain out, run cold water through it, then mix it thoroughly through a pint of milk which has been beaten well with two eggs, and season with salt and pepper. If the cabbage is small, use one egg and half a pint of milk. Have the bag very thickly greased and sprinkle it inside with grated cheese. Put in the mixture by big spoonfuls, add a lump of butter and sprinkle in more cheese between the spoonfuls. Seal very tight, lay on a trivet, put in a hot oven for three minutes, then slack heat, and cook for at least an hour.

Scrape carrots as usual, cut them in pieces and put into a buttered bag with half a gill of stock, a dot of butter and salt and pepper to taste. Cook thirty-five to forty-five minutes at a moderate heat.

Apple dumplings are apple dumplings in or out of bags. Their goodness depends on three things—the paste, the maker and the cooking. The apple is hardly more than a vehicle to hold sweets and spices and accent the tang of them.

Make real puff paste for your dumplings, roll it a quarter-inch thick, fit it neatly around the apples, which should be liberally treated with sugar and butter, not to name lemon peel and cinnamon, put in a thickly-buttered bag with a small lump of butter and a spoonful of sugar, and cook for twenty to twenty-five minutes in a fairly hot oven.

For cider sauce, cream half a cup of butter, frothy light, beat into it a heaping cup of sugar, then set over hot water and add gradually a cup of fresh sweet cider, hot but not boiling. Beat hard together, grate nutmeg over, and serve very hot.

The cheese crackers are lightly buttered, sprinkled with parmesan, and heated inside a bag for about five minutes.

THE INFORMAL DINNER AT HOME.

Not every young woman realizes that the simple home dinner, cooked and served without pretension, can be made as attractive and successful an entertainment as the elaborate feast of a prince. Very often its very simplicity is its greatest charm to the guest who is stifled with luxury at home. There is about it a note of intimacy and understanding which is flattering to the one asked to partake of the simplest repast. The first thing for the hostess to learn is to be composed. She may be frightfully nervous and anxious, particularly if she is just beginning to entertain, but she must resolutely put on a mask of composure and assume a virtue if she has it not. Nothing is of much importance excepting her own demeanor. A fussy hostess who scolds her servants, wrinkles her brows or even forgets to listen to the man who is talking to her is the ruin of a dinner.

A vase of flowers or a basket of growing plants are as of much beauty and in as perfect taste as the elaborate floral decorations of the formal dinner. Dinner cards fashioned by the fair hands of the young hostess, with a witty quotation suited to each guest, will prove as effective as the hand painted affairs distributed at more costly affairs. A simple menu, consisting of good soup, a bit of fish, a roast, a simple salad, finished with cheese and coffee, is good enough for anybody and is possible to the person of moderate means. Take moderation as your keynote, don't overdo, err on the side of simplicity and your dinner will be a success.

HARD LABOR FOR SUFFRAGETTES

London Magistrates Put a New Kink in Penalty for Women.

SMASHERS SENT UP

London, March 5.—Two of the suffragettes who took part in last night's window smashing campaign in Victoria street, in the vicinity of the house of parliament were sentenced by the Bow street magistrate today to two months imprisonment with hard labor.

The magistrate has 150 cases against suffragettes still to deal with, 87 of them arising from the serious riots of last Friday, when the accused caused damage to the extent of $25,000 and the others in connection with last night's disturbances.

Alice Wright, described as an American resident in Paris, was sentenced today by the magistrate sitting at the West London police court to two months imprisonment at hard labor on a charge of window smashing yesterday morning. All the other women who engaged in the raid yesterday in the west end of Lonodn received similar sentences.

The addition of hard labor to the term of imprisonment is a new departure on the part of the magistrates and had caused dismay among the women.

FIND SOME OLD BONDS.

Thirty Years Old and Kept in Bank Vault for Long Time.

Maumee avenue turnpike bonds, aggregating several thousand dollars and issued thirty years ago, were turned over to the county commissioners today by Attorney James M. Barrett, representing the Old National bank.

They had been in the vaults of the bank for a great many years and are of no value as all the roads were purchased by the county after they were issued and the bondholders received their money and the debts were cancelled.

These were done up in a package and the name of Morris and Barrett written on the outside and there was nothing to indicate that they were more than some private papers. Mr. Barrett was called in this morning while the bank was cleaning house and the bonds given to him and he gave them to the commissioners, who will destroy them.

LAKESIDE MEETING SATURDAY.

Park Commissioners Want to Meet Property Owners at the Schoolhouse.

The board of park commissioners have fixed Saturday evening at 8 o'clock for a meeting in the Lakeside school house of property owners living north of the Maumee river, west of Walton avenue, south of State street and east of Parnell avenue to its intersection with the St. Joe road and east of the St. Joe river to the Columbia street bridge.

The board will take up just as soon as the weather will permit the work of improving Lakeside park and its members want an expression from the property holders on the subject.

WANTED — Good, reliable man, experienced in laying carpets, linoleums, etc. Apply, The Peoples Store.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

VAUDEVILLE INAUGURATED.

Two Immense Audiences Mark the New Departure.

The Majestic theater had a decidedly auspicious inauguration of vaudeville at two performances yesterday. Two packed houses and enthusiasm unlimited for an excellent and well-varied bill put the stamp of approval on this radical departure of the management. For the evening performance the house was sold out and enough turned away to have made a fair audience.

In a program that is all good Marcella's "tropical tricksters" take prominence. These bird acrobats and comedians have had the higher education in their line and perform a variety of tricks and stunts that are marvelous. The gorgeous plumage of some of the parrots and the pure white of others is strikingly set off by a stage layout that is very sumptuous. The birds do many things—some merely difficult, others merely funny and still others that are both. They turn somersaults, ride bicycles, waltz, manage tiny vehicles and all the while keeping up a merry chatter and clatter and squawk in which now and then an intelligible remark stands forth.

Francellnas, "the world's greatest heavyweight juggler," as the bill announces him, may not be the greatest, but is great enough and good enough to hold the audience for half an hour breathless with some remarkable feats in which agility and strength have equal place.

The McCall Trio sing and dance and make merry and make musical in an act that is good. The male third of the sketch interpolates some impromptu song compositions as a take-off on his audience. It is very amusing, very ingenious and "gets over" with much eclat. Will Hart, a minstrel comedian, does a blackface act with a line of breezy and funny talk, some singing with a good voice and some playing on a piccolo that marks him with the honors of virtuosity, as the musical critics say.

Caldwell and Pelton have a singing and talking act in which the talking is much the better and somewhat above the average of the sketch team persiflage. May Keough and company are seen in a humorous sketch called "The Typewriter Girl," which is not as prosaic as it sounds, and amuses the audience. Casad, Irving and Casad present a humorous and musical stunt styled "Everyday Life on a Railroad," that "caught on" readily and held well. The closing scene in which the railway station at Knox, Ind., is shown, made a hit. The Casads are said to have originally come from Knox, but evidently are not going back.

Altogether the Majestic's vaudeville inauguration was a distinct success and will be continued indefinitely save when now and then dates for high priced attractions intervene.

LAUNCHED WORK IN CURRICULUM

Chicago Girls Trained in Kitchen Mysteries as Well.

IT MARKS A NEW ERA

Chicago, March 5.—A course in laundering is to be required of every girl graduate of the technical course of the Lucy Flower high school. This is the only technical high school for girls in Chicago, so it is presumed that most students will take the technical course, although classical education will be offered.

This new course is a development of Mrs. Ella Flagg Young's plans. She and the principal, Miss Dora Wells, are instigators of the course. Boys begin their industrial education with fundamental materials they expect to work with in their business career. Hence, Mrs. Young thinks girls should follow the same system and learn laundering, cooking, scouring and sewing.

"Women must work out their educational salvation through the fundamental occupations for women; they lead directly into a form of artistic expression; sewing leads to garment making, embroidering and designing," she says.

"I was trained to teach Latin and Greek," said Miss Wells. "Now I am interested in cooking, music, drawing, sewing, laundry work and designing. I believe that through this work you can get as much culture as through the academic subjects."

The high school—the old South Division high school—is four months old. There is a lunch room in which the pupils prepare all the food. It began with a fund of $11.65 advanced by the principal and one teacher and has paid the sum back from the earnings on the meals.

BEQUEATHES HOODOO WATCH.

Jeffersonville, Ind., March 5.—The will of George Buchanan, who died suddenly a wee kago, was probated yesterday. It was written two weeks before his death and his ill-omened gold watch, 100 years old, was left to a nephew, A. Eversly Buchanan. The testator's death was the third sudden death of an owner of the timepiece.

Simple Home Remedy for Wrinkled Faces

(From Popular Monthly.)

Thousands are spending fortunes in frantic efforts to remove the signs of premature age from their faces. Such women willingly pay almost any amount of money for worthless wrinkle removers, of which there are many.

If they only knew it, the most effective remedy imaginable is a simple, harmless face wash which can be made up at home in less than a minute. They have only to get an ounce of powdered saxolite and half a pint of witch hazel at the drug store and mix the two. Apply this daily as a refreshing lotion. The effect is almost magical. Even after the first treatment a marked improvement is noticed and the face has a smug, firm feeling that is most pleasing.

NO HOLDOUTS ON THE LOCAL TEAM

Everybody in the Fold and Varnell Had No Real Trouble.

ALBERTS IS READY

There are no real holdouts on the local baseball team and in justice to the men under reservation and the new ones secured by Owner Claude H. Varnell he has to say that he is highly pleased with the way the men got into the fold.

Vandagrift and Goldrick were the men who refused to sign their contracts when they were first presented. Charlie Alberts has not sent his in, but has written that he is satisfied and will do so in a short time. The list of players included in the roster are:

Catchers—Bailey and Vanaman.

Pitchers—Roth, Danley, Gallino, Hunter, Bubilt, Valliere, McManus, Goldrick.

Infielders—Robertson, Vandagrift, McLafferty, Fabrique, Sensenbach, Clancy.

Outfielders—Blount, Keener, Shaughnessy.

About twenty-five players will report next month and out of that number the owner expects his manager to pick a club. Speaking of the men whom he held under reservation and one that he bought Mr. Varnell has the following to say:

"Now, about the holdouts. In justice to the different members of the Fort Wayne team, I have not had much trouble signing up the ball club, in fact none was a real holdout but Vandagrift and Goldrick. Vandagrift thought he ought to have a raise. When I purchased his release from the South Michigan association, I wrote the club and asked what amount Carl received for managing the team. When I received a reply I sent Vandagrift a contract for the same amount of money to play in Fort Wayne as he received for managing a club in class C. I presume he thought the matter over carefully and decided he was being treated right in Fort Wayne for his contract came in and has been sent through the president's office to Secretary Farrell.

"Goldrick wrote me he would not play ball for the same salary he received last year. I wrote him and told him he received the same salary I paid all my pitchers during the 1911 season and today his contract is in. He must be ready to play ball. Bill Bailey asked me at the Fort Wayne meeting if I could raise his salary; said he did not want me to think he was holding out, but if he could get a raise he would like to have it. When I explained things to him he wanted to sign then and there, but I told him he must have a contract acknowledged before a notary public. Bill had no kick coming and was and is always very fair."

Vanaman is a semi-pro catcher highly recommended and as Fort Wayne wants to develop a good backstop it is likely he will be given every opportunity to show here. The mistake in allowing Nagleisen to go last season has served its purpose and if a promising youngster is picked up he will stick.

Bill Clancy forgot to swear to his contract and it was sent back to him to have this defect remedied. He is satisfied with the terms offered and made no objection to signing.

Fort Wayne is in as good shape as any club in the league and in better shape than many of them. Excellent treatment has had its effect. Owner Varnell has always been considerate of every man who played ball for him and when he explained conditions in the league to those who did not sign up readily it was easy to convince them because they knew that he had always been perfectly frank and honest with them.

SAMPLE WITH YOUNGSTOWN.

Signs Contract to Work Under Bill Phillips This Season.

Youngstown, O., March 5.—Guy Sample, former Dayton catcher who played with the Steelmen for several weeks last season, has signed a contract with the local club for the coming season. Sample was recently unconditionally released by Dayton because of his age, according to report.

Manager Phillips figures that in landing Sample he will have a good man to catch the youngsters. Sample is one of the brainiest receivers in the Central. He has made a great success of his work with recruit twirlers. He is some clouter, too, having won several games for Youngstown last season with his bat.

BROWNS ORDERED TO REPORT.

St. Louis, Mo., March 5.—President Hedges and Manager Wallace of the St. Louis American league team met this morning to complete plans for the home training work of their players, following their return from West Baden, Ind., yesterday. Members of the team have been ordered to report at the park tomorrow morning.

COAL MEN BUNCH PINS IN SECOND

Win One in Three from Alt Heidelberg Five at the Metropolitan.

ELK LEAGUE SCORES

In the week opening at the Metropolitan alleys the Zurbuch Coal company squad bunched pins in the second game and won one in three from the Alt Heidelberg five. Walker and Carr made a hard fight for the high marks on the winning team and the latter won the average by four points but was obliged to surrender the individual high score which went to the runner-up.

In the third game two of the five coal men tumbled way down below their usual averages and although Blauvelt registered 226, the best single endeavor of the series, in the windup his team didn't go to 900 and the score went to waste. He got high average from Bruno, who counted 211 in the second game and was second high. The scores:

SLEAR IN MICHIGAN STATE.

Player Formerly on Fort Wayne Club Is To Manage Boyne City.

Boyne City, Mich., March 5.—Bo Slear, who batted .275 for the Battle Creek club of the Southern Michigan league in thirty-seven games last season and fielded .968 in the outfield, has signed to manage and captain the Boyne City club of the Michigan State league this year. He will sign almost an entire team of players who have either played under his management or whom he has played against.

Slear has managed several teams in the Southern Michigan league and has been long known as one of the league's dangerous batsmen. His home is at Elkhart, Ind., which is also the home of Lou Criger, manager of the Boyne City team last season. The new manager assures the club directors that he will have a team which will be up in the race and has made a splendid impression during his stay here.

JEWELL ON THE MARKET.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 5. — Benny Jewell, one of the cleverest shortstops who has ever worked in the Central league, and for three seasons with Wheeling, is on the market for a trade. Notwithstanding the ability of the speed boy, Manager Anderson will be unable to use him this year, because it is his intention to give the fans of Steubenville a team of new players.

FORT WAYNE COLONY NUMBER THREE

GEORGE NILL AND HIS FAMILY.

George Nill is a real Fort Wayne baseball product and he is one of the players who can always be found here in the winter months. This has been the eventful winter in the history of the player as Miss Mary Claire Nill arrived about six months ago and she is seated in the center and is the object of a great deal of solicitude on the part of Mrs. Nill who was trying to keep her still long enough to be photographed and was unmindful of the fact that she was not "watching the little bird" herself.

Little Miss Nill is the joy of the household and just one mention of her name will cause the fond Dada to smile and buy. Nill began his baseball career in Fort Wayne on the lots, and after he graduated from the Shamrock to the Davenport, Ia., team, his rise was rapid and the fact that he is not now holding down a big league berth is due to misfortunes.

Cleveland had him at one time, and if he had been given proper chance and encouragement, he might have stuck in the American league, but just about the time he gets to going good he has an injury or some other piece of bad luck, and it has operated against him right along.

He is looked upon generally as a valuable ball player and has never been without a job as he is too good a man to be cut loose and he has always brought good money to the club that owned and sold him.

Quiet in his manner, a thorough "home body" Nill enjoys his winters here. For two years he has been driving an express wagon which served to keep him out in the open air and prepare him for training.

He is waiting orders to report and expects to get out in a short time and will start the season with Chattanooga where he finished with a good record last year.

CHAMPS WIN IN THE LAST GAMES

Order and Engineering Department Takes Three in Bowser Close.

WIND UP FOR YEAR

In the closing games of the Bowser Bowling league series the Order and Engineering department made a clean sweep of three in the clash with the Sales department and clinched the title to the championship for the season, which closed with these contests.

Schroeder and Morrison hooked up for the lead in the average column and each totaled 523 pins but the latter won by a spurt and tabbed 195 in his final round taking the high individual score for his share.

Bunting, of the losing club, started with 212 and kept falling off in his work until he tumbled to 181 in the last but he copped the average and high score with plenty to spare.

The Machine five easily took the first and second from the Shop office squad, but fell down in the third and lost it. Scoring on both sides was low and McGinnis and Laible took the best marks. The scores:

HARGROVE SIGNS CONTRACT.

New Haven Lad Gets in the Fold at Terre Haute for 1912.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 5.—"Bubbles" Hargrove, of New Haven, Ind., has signed his 1912 contract with the Terre Haute club and it is now in the possession of Manager Aggie Grant who is glad to have it. He was given a raise over last year, but not as much as he demanded. The players signed now are:

Pitchers—Pickering, Cantwell, Smith, Gossage, Givler, Snadden, Dickerson, Nally, Quicsser, Larson, Sullivan, Doyle and Markham.

Catchers—Hargrove, Waring and O'Brien.

Outfielders—Thornton, Snyder, Miller, Calvert, Hurless, Woody and Donald.

Infielders—Hartford, Gust, Mahoney, Sherry and Kobi.

BOSTONS OFF FOR PRACTICE.

Boston, Mass., March 5.—The advance guard of the Boston National league ball club left here today for the south to begin spring practice. Several players will join the delegation along the road. At New York a special train will be taken for August, Ga., the training quarters.

GREMMINGER IS AFTER GOOD MAN

Has Lines Out for Shortstop Now With American Association Club.

FOUR HOLDING OUT

Canton, O., March 5.—An addition to the list of candidates for the shortfield position is Manager Gremminger's next contemplated move in the upbuilding of his team. He expects developments within the week.

He now has lines out for a shortstop from the American association, a man of high caliber who has seen service in the big leagues. He is adverse to giving out the name until the deal is either pulled off or falls through. His assurance is that he is a player who will have no difficulty in making good in the Central in both fielding and with the stick.

The shortstop candidates now number Mazer, secured from the Athletics, and McGinty, who has played the position for the Canton team for two seasons. Mazer is an unknown quantity to the Canton leader, who signed him merely on the recommendation of a friend in the east who has the ear of Connie Mack. Gremminger cannot afford to take a chance on the likelihood of sufficient improvements in the Celt's form.

President Yost expressed himself as satisfied with the men now signed for the other positions in the infield.

"I have confidence that the other men will be able to take care of their stations," he said. "Gremminger will have to take his hat off to no first baseman in the league. Harley Humphreys will be able to play second acceptably, better than he did last year. He should improve in his hitting and his fielding was all that could be asked last season. Harley pounded the ball hard the last month of 1911. At third Ted Strood will have no difficulty, judging from the game he has played in the last few years. He wanted to come to Canton and that will better his playing considerably. A crack shortstop, the kind Gremminger is now after, is all that is needed. Either one or the other two now signed might turn out to be just right but we can't take chances on such an important position. In addition there are the youngsters we have already signed up for trials."

Gremminger is expected to hear from all of the four men on the reserve list who have not signed their 1912 contracts, despite the holdout attitude of two of them, Murphy and Cy Dawson.

"No word has been received from either Jeff Holmquist or big O'Connell," he said Monday, "but that isn't bothering me at all. Both will sign up. I will write to them today and try to hurry them a little. Neither one has asked for a boost in salary, so I don't think they are holding out on us.

"Murphy is considering the matter at his home. He received a salary none too big last season and is asking for more. I guess he will sign for a raise will be granted. It may not be as much as he wishes, but it will be something. Cy is asking just about as much as can be paid one man in the Central this season, but he'll come around."

NEE TO QUIT THE GAME.

Takes Job With Manufacturing Company In Home Town.

Dayton, O., March 5.—Aggie Grant's infield plans have been given a stiff uppercut by Johnny Nee, former Vet, who has quit baseball, according to a letter received from him by one of his Dayton friends. Johnny is secretary and treasurer of a new manufacturing concern at Springfield, Mo., which has been formed to make a ball bearing fifth wheel for carriages, buggies and wagons. The inventor is president of the new concern.

Johnny is enthusiastic over his future as a business man. The invention his company has to work with fills a long felt want and Johnny sees no reason why he should not make more money with it than by sticking to baseball. This concern is no bluff of John's to get a higher salary out of Terre Haute. He says the contract Grant sent him was all right, and that he is still holding it but never expects to sign up.

GLASSCOCK JOINS BILLY SUNDAY.

Great Shortstop Greets Old Diamond Comrade at Wheeling.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 5.—Among the many converts who were brought into the fold by Evangelist Billy Sunday during his stay here is Jack Glasscock, one of the greatest shortstops the game ever produced. He and the evangelist were diamond comrades years ago and the greeting extended to the old player was warm and sincere.

HUGH PAINTING FENCES.

(Youngstown Vindicator.)

Hughie Tate may have a pre-season job at Wright field, and one that will give him a chance to fill his pocketbook before the call for recruits is sounded. It is understood that much painting is to be done at the park, and Magnate Powers has about decided to give Tate a chance at the job. Hughie is some painter and should make good. Much of the work to be done in this line is the painting of several signs recently contracted. Tate is a star at lettering, while he has anything in this neck of the woods lashed to the mast as a penman.

HUBBARD TELLS OF THE ORIGIN OF PHRASE, "GOT HIS GOAT"

There are lots of highly educated people with college degrees who do not know the origin of the classic expression, "Got his goat."

This fine literary phrase, so far-reaching in its psysic import, originated in East Aurora.

It was first used by Ali Baba.

Living neighbor to the Roycroft Shop was one Ed Geers, horse general and all-around sporty jackanapes, known to the world as the "silent man," on account of the way he had of lifting his voice so you could hear him a mile, and hailing the stable boys at inopportune times.

In the stable of Ed Geers was a very fast horse known as Prince Regent. This horse was of a very nervous disposition, and when in a box stall by himself—especially in a strange place—trotted and suffered from homesickness.

Ed Geers bought a goat from Ali Baba and put it in the stall with the horse, and the horse and the goat became very chummy.

When they would take the horse out to trot on the track he would seemingly look forward to the moment when he could get back and relate his experiences to the sympathetic goat.

There came a day when this horse was to trot for the Futurity stakes in Buffalo. All went well, and it looked as if Prince Regent had a sure thing. The bets were all in favor of Prince Regent.

But at midnight on the day before the race someone got in the barn and stole the goat, and the horse so pined for his mate that he seemed to lose heart, and by the afternoon when the time came for the horses to be called, Prince Regent lost his nerve.

"What's the matter with that horse?" somebody said, as they noticed the animal's drooping ears.

"Why, somebody's got his goat," said Ali Baba.

And so the phrase has gone clattering down the centuries, like a tin kettle to a dog's tail. It has been fixed in the current coin of speech.

"We have got his goat." That means the man is done for and out of the game.

KENOSHA GETS MATCH.

Chicago, Ill., March 5.—Splitting the difference, Marty Forkins, for Eddie McGoorty, and Silvio Ferreti, backed up by Hugo Kelly, have signed articles for a ten-round match to be held in Kenosha, Wis., March 18. All concerned argued for several hours on the weight question, Kelly wanting 158 at 6 o'clock and Forkins demanding 158 at 3. The final compromise was reached when the promoters suggested 158 at 4:30. The outfit to stage the bout is the same club which put on the last set-to between Kelly and Brown.

AFTER THE HOLDOUTS.

South Bend, Ind., March 5.—Unless Catcher Duckey Holmes and Third Baseman Barkwell of Grand Rapids, Pitcher E. J. Madden, of South Bend, Catcher "Heinie" Tieman of Dayton, come to terms within the next five days they will be declared ineligible by President Carson of the Central league, acting on advices furnished by club owners. The contracts of the players are supposed to be in the hands of the managements not later than March 1, but five days' grace has been granted to the dilatory players.

Fitche's Grocery and Meat Market, corner Huffman and Andrew streets, will open tomorrow morning, March 6.

FOUR MORE IN THE FOLD.

Akron, O., March 5.—Lattimore, Sellers, Keefe and Fred Clarke have sent in their contracts to Manager Leo Fohl, of the local ball team and the playing roster is about completed.

SORE ARM FOR NINETEEN YEARS

Monroe, La., March 5.—Nineteen years of baseball—this will be the 20th—with hardly a day's freedom from a sore arm, that's what Joe Sugden has been through, and the most remarkable part of it is that Joe was considered a great catcher in his time and still loves the game. According to the veteran's own story, the only times in his life when his wing didn't pain him every time he threw a ball were on the first days of the practice season. He really enjoys these first days, but after that it means a sharp twinge whenever he cuts one loose.

"In all my baseball career," said Joe, "I do not remember making a throw to a base when a man was stealing that it didn't feel as though somebody was sticking a knife into my shoulder. Sometimes it got so bad that I would have to call time to tie my shoe or make some other stall, for fear that the man would try to make another base on the next pitch, and I would have to throw again. I knew I couldn't do it, even if he came right up and stole my mask.

"Sometimes in practice I could throw without pain, but just as soon as the game started and I was obliged to get the steam behind the pegs, it was all off. I remember one day in Washington, my arm seemed to fly out of the socket and for the remainder of the game I had to roll the ball back to the pitcher. There wasn't anybody else to go in behind the bat so I had to do the best I could. Naturally the opposing team ran wild on the bases, but I couldn't have made another throw that afternoon if I had been offered a million.

"Of course everybody in the world knew that my arm was sore and any time a man got on he immediately started for second. That necessitated my throwing about twice as much as the backstop who had a reputation as a man-killer. The worst of it was that whenever I got any one stealing they called me lucky. I never got a bit of credit, for every one figured that I just happened to make a good peg that time and wouldn't come within a block of the next one.

"If it hadn't been for Bobby Wallace's splendid handling of poor throws I don't know what I should have done. All the time that I was with St. Louis the Scot saved me on an average of fifty men a year, by digging the ball out of the dirt and making some sort of a phenomenal play on the would-be thief."

WAS A NATIVE OF FORT WAYNE

Death Claims Rev. Traugott Thieme, a Lutheran Minister.

DIES AT SOUTH BEND

Friends in Fort Wayne have received news of the death of Rev. Traugott Thieme, well known Lutheran minister, which occurred at his home in South Bend this morning. Rev. Mr. Thieme had been suffering from Bright's disease for the past sixty days, but his condition was not thought to be immediately alarming, and death came suddenly.

Rev. Mr. Thieme was born in Fort Wayne 54 years ago and was well known here. He was the son of J. G. Thieme, a pioneer merchant tailor in this city, and was educated at Concordia college and later graduated from the Lutheran seminary at St. Louis. His first ministerial charge was at Columbia City, but for twenty-five years he had been pastor of the German Lutheran church at South Bend.

Of the immediate family there survive the widow and five children—Rev. Traugott Thieme, jr., at Mattoon, Ill.; Martin Thieme, in school at Addison, Ill.; Mrs. William Laufer, of South Bend; Mrs. Oscar Roeder, of Bremen, and Miss Bertha Thieme, at home. Relatives in Fort Wayne include the aged mother, Mrs. Sophia Thieme, and three sisters—Miss Marie Thieme, Mrs. W. O. Gross and Mrs. C. Strieder.

The funeral services will be held at South Bend on Friday.

Mr. Chaney is well known in Fort Wayne, and years ago he was a resident of Aboit township, this county.

PRESCRIPTION Cures Piles for 10c or 25c

WYOMING GIRL SAYS GOOD-BYE

Alberta Claire Gets Away in Resumption of Long Trip.

ANTWERP NEXT STOP

With many expressions of appreciation for Fort Wayne's cordial interest in her undertaking, Alberta Claire, "the girl from Wyoming," waved this city adieu shortly before noon today as she resumed her eastward trip on horseback. A considerable crowd had gathered to see her make the start.

The young woman who has ridden her pony, "Bud," from Los Angeles to this city, accompanied only by her dog, set out with Antwerp, O., 28 miles distant, as the objective point for the night, and tomorrow she will ride to Defiance, making the trip into Toledo on Thursday.

Miss Claire was taken ill in her rooms at the Anthony yesterday and for a time was under the care of a physician. Dr. J. H. Gilpin, who pronounced the illness a slight attack of ptomaine poisoning. She had completely recovered this morning, however.

LOCAL FORECAST.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 5.—Forecast for Fort Wayne and vicinity for thirty-six hours ending 7 p. m. Wednesday, March 6: Cloudy tonight, with probably light snow; Wednesday fair; continued cold; lowest temperature tonight about 10 degrees.

GENERAL FORECAST.

Washington, March 5.—Weather forecast:

Indiana: Cloudy tonight with snow south portion. Wednesday probably fair.

Illinois: Snow tonight and Wednesday, no important change in temperature.

Ohio. Generally fair north, local snows south portion tonight; Wednesday probably fair, except snow southeast portion.

Lower Michigan: Fair and continued cold tonight and Wednesday.

Summary of Weather Conditions.

Persistent high pressure over the northern half of the country is giving continued cold weather over much of the country; over much of the Dakotas, the British northwest, Ontario and the northern portions of New York and New England, temperatures are from 10 to 20 degrees below zero again this morning, while freezing temperatures extend southward to central Texas, Tennessee and the Carolinas. West of the Rockies warm weather, with quite general rains, prevails.

This morning a storm in the southwest is giving rain or snow from the gulf coast northward to Oklahoma, southern Missouri and southern Indiana, heavy rains being reported from much of the lower Mississippi valley. This storm will move northeastward and give snow over the Ohio valley, probably giving some snow in this section tonight; Wednesday will be fair. The weather will continue cold tonight and Wednesday.

HAS 13 DAYS COMING.

Then Robert Fleming Must Face Another Charge.

Some two weeks ago Officer Hughes, with a warrant charging assault and battery on Elizabeth Fisher, issued by Squire Graebner, started out to arrest Robert Fleming. He found Fleming, but before he could get hold of him Fleming skipped. Until this morning the officer could find no trace of him. He picked him up on the street today and took him to the office of Squire Graebner and, awaiting a hearing, he was sent to jail. When he got to the jail the turnkey recognized Rob as an offender who yet had thirteen days to serve on another charge. When he serves that out Fleming will have to face the assault and battery charge in Squire Graebner's court.

Quality With Economy

These two points are features all builders strive for, but so often one is obtained at the expense of the other. To secure both requires experience and equipment.

In Building, These Essentials Are Never Possessed By the Individual.

With us, building is a business in which we have specialized, and our expert knowledge and thorough organization enable us to give more Quality for the money than is otherwise possible.

In buying from us you pay no more for a substantial, artistic home than you would elsewhere for a house ordinary in design and poor in construction.

We are enabled to do this because we control every feature entering into the work. We buy our land by the acre—we contract for our lumber in car lots—we have our own planing mill—we purchase hardware, electrical fixtures, plumbing supplies and all other materials wholesale—we have our own landscape artists and maintain our own architectural department.

These advantages possessed only by us are the reasons why the Wildwood way means a better home for less money.

BAWLS OUT HIS OWN STATE HEAD

Congressman Clark Takes Fall Out of Florida Governor.

ON FLOOR OF HOUSE

Washington, March 5.—Arising to a question of personal privilege Representative Clark, of Florida, made a sensational attack on Governor Gilchrist, of that state, in the house today.

Gov. Gilchrist arrived in Washington last night to testify in the Florida everglades investigation. In a purported interview, printed today Mr. Clark said the governor expressed his "surprise" at the attitude of a Florida representative in this matter. Mr. Clark said he had been prompted to start the inquiry because of the operations of "conscienceless land sharks" in misrepresenting such lands.

"It remains for the governor of Florida—Got pity the state!" he said, "to travel all the way from Tallahassee to Washington to insinuate that now I am working in the interests of western railroads. I brand that as a malicious gratuitous and unqualified falsehood."

Mr. Clark said that Mr. Gilchrist before he was elected governor had made a business of land exploitation.

"If the conduct of conscienceless land sharks," he said, "that I'm trying to balk in the honor of my state. Yet the governor of my state says that in attacking thieves I am attacking the state of Florida. If that is so God help Florida."

Referring to Mr. Gilchrist as "this little pin head governor," Mr. Clark said he rested his case with the people of his own district and felt certain of the result. He was applauded as he took his seat.

MEETS WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Northside Civic Improvement Association at Bloomingdale School.

The regular monthly meeting of the Northside Civic Improvement association will be held on Wednesday evening, March 6th, at the Bloomingdale public school building at 8 o'clock. The Barthold street committee have a report of great interest to present, which will be received with great pleasure by the association. The newly appointed waterworks committee has been active during the past month and will report relative to their first move to eliminate dead ends which exist in the water mains on the north side.

At the last regular meeting the association was honored by the presence of several ladies of the north side. The officers of the association are very glad to see this spirit amongst the women and cordially invite them and any others who desire to attend these meetings, to again be present next Wednesday evening.

LOOKING FOR A LOCATION.

First Shipment of City Repair Plant About April 10.

A representative of Hetherington and Berner, of Indianapolis, was in consultation during the day with the board of public works relative to the location of the asphalt repair plant, but none was fully decided on. The first shipment of machinery will be made about April 10 and the manufacturers guarantee that it will be dustless and compact and will not be an annoyance, no matter where it is placed.

BACKACHE ALMOST UNBEARABLE.

Is an almost certain result of kidney trouble. D. Toomey, 803 E. Olive St., Bloomington, Ill., says: "I suffered with backache and pains in my kidneys which were almost unbearable. I gave Foley Kidney Pills a good trial, and they done wonders for me. Today I can do a real hard day's work and not feel the effects." Foley Kidney Pills will cure any case of kidney and bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. Dreier Drug Co.

Dr. HARDMAN SPECIALIST

I Cure Pelvic, Nervous and Chronic Diseases

No man can afford to undertake his daily labor without being well equipped, mentally and physically. It is a fact that the man who is afflicted with any disease is working under a disadvantage in proportion to the extent of the trouble. Many a man has been forced to abandon a successful career because disease had lessened his ability to successfully compete with those who were strong and therefore able to forge to the front. Do you know how much you are losing every day of your life because of your inability to do the work of a strong, healthy man? Do you feel as though you can afford to continue as you are when you can be cured? Perhaps you have tried to get well. Have you ever gone to a specialist, one who has made a lifelong study of diseases such as yours? Perhaps you have gone to your family physician and because he could not cure you have abandoned hope. Did you ever stop to consider that your family physician has several hundred different diseases to treat? Can you blame him for not thoroughly understanding all of them? Of course you cannot. Then why not go to one who devotes all his energies to the study of just a few and who can the more thoroughly understand them?

I have made a special study of Pelvic, Nervous and Chronic diseases and have developed methods which will cure where the ordinary methods have failed.

If you will call at my office I will give you a careful and thorough examination, and if your case is curable I will make you a fee as low as possible and consistent with honest, scientific treatment.

If I think your case is incurable I will tell you so, as I have no time to waste, and no desire to accept money for treating incurable diseases.

BLOOD POISON—I use only the most advanced methods in the treatment of blood poison and kindred diseases.

PROSTATIC ENLARGEMENT—This may result from a number of causes. The constant jarring and vibration of trains and trolley cars are a very potent cause. Bicycle riding and the use of riding implements on the farm are factors in producing the disease. In fact, the causes are so many and varied that fully 75 per cent. of all male adults are afflicted to a greater or lesser extent by this disease. The disease is so little understood, and as one of the principal symptoms is a pain in the back, it is usually called kidney trouble and treated with local applications or sedatives which can do no possible good whatever. I reduce the enlargement and have been able to cure about 90 per cent of all cases.

VARICOCELE—I cure Varicocele in a few days' or weeks' time without the use of the knife.

STRICTURE—I readily remove Stricture by my dissolvent method without the use of instruments.

RUPTURE, PILES, FISTULA, ETC., cured without detention from business and without the use of the knife.

Consultation and All Communications Strictly Confidential. Office Hours—9-12, 1-5. Evenings, 7-8. Sunday, 9-12 Only. No Office Hours on Thursdays Write or Call on

THE LOCAL MARKETS.

Both Wheat and Oats Go Up the Scale One Cent.

Wheat and oats have advanced one cent in the local market, wheat being quoted now at 96c and oats at 51c. Country produce remains unchanged from the prices of Monday. There is a tendency, however, towards lower prices, which the present cold weather is holding in check. There are plenty of eggs, but the retail price remains at 24 and 25c. In some cases they are selling at 23c. Butter has advanced somewhat in the last few days.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., March 5.—Good rains southwest where spring temperatures are setting in, made prices easier today in wheat. May started at $1.03⅝ to $1.03¾@1.03¾ and sagged to $1.03⅜.

Subsequently the big increase in the world's available supply total carried the market yet lower. Closing figures were ¾c down for May, but firm at $1.03⅜@1.03½.

Corn weakened under free realizing by holders. May opened at 71c to 71⅛c and dropped to 70⅝c.

A further decline resulted, owing to lack of export demand. The close was steady with May corn ⅝c net lower at 70⅜c.

Liquidating by longs caused activity and depression in the oats crowd. May started at 52⅞c and declined to 52¾c.

Packers were credited with being on the selling side of provisions, but on the resulting dip support developed and the market displayed a steadier tone. Sales started with May delivery $15.72½ for pork, $9.30 to $9.35 for lard and $8.72½ for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, March 5.—Opening prices on the stock exchange today showed a fair degree of steadiness. Canadian Pacific advanced 3 and United States Steel on initial transactions of 2,500 shares, advanced ⅝. Some of the specialities, including sugar and United States Rubber made slight gains. Reading, American Smelting and Louisville & Nashville were among the few active stocks that opened with moderate declines.

United States Steel was the feature of the early trading, resuming its old time leadership in point of activity and advancing to 63½, a gain of 1⅛. Amalgamated Copper also moved to a new high record on the movement. The active issues were relatively strong, but realizing sales made some impression on prices toward the end of the first hour.

Union Pacific divided honors with steel, advancing to 167. Of the other active issues, Reading and Lehigh Valley advanced a point each. The Eries were all up, and Canadian Pacific increased its gain to 1⅛. Bonds were steady.

The market closed strong. Erie issues and some of the specialities, including American Can preferred, increased the early advantage.

AWFUL ATROCITY BY HE CHINESE

frequent occurrence and corpses are seen daily floating down the river.

Responsible Chinese assert that terrible scenes are being enacted daily in Canton and its vicinity. These persons declare that if the state of affairs was known abroad the foreign powers would interfere and put a stop to the slaughter and looting. One prominent Chinese who refused to comply with the demands of a band of desperadoes found that during his absence from home all his family had been murdered with the exception of one boy. Shamon, where the foreign settlement of Canton is situated, is protected by a barricade of sandbags which have been painted so as to resemble their soldiers.

In Canton yesterday 3,000 soldiers who were formerly pirates but had been enlisted into the army, were disarmed, paid off and mustered out of the army as they were not trustworthy. They were surrounded by seven thousand regular troops until they left the city. All these men probably will form themselves into robber bands.

All the merchant vessels traveling along the West river are now escorted by gunboats or torpedo boats.

The French flagship arrived at Hong Kong today and the British admiral on the Asiatic station has been requested to send a British battleship here tomorrow. It is thought that the naval authorities have decided to take entire charge of the rivers in southern China owing to the British river gunboat Sand Piper being fired on recently by pirates.

MEET AND WED IN HALF HOUR.

Coast Man and Pretty Widow Set Marriage Record.

Los Angeles, March 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linsenbord, who began their honeymoon here, hold a unique record. The bridegroom met and wooed and married his bride in thirty minutes.

Linsenbord, a chauffeur, was trying to start his automobile in a downtown street when the crank "kicked" back and his arm was injured severely. Along came Mrs. Sadie Ball, a widow. She dressed his injured arm for him, talking pleasantly the while.

"Gee! I wish I had a wife," remarked Linsenbord. "Well, this is leap year," mused Mrs. Ball. "Will you marry me?"

For answer Linsenbord swung her to a seat in the automobile, dashed to the court house, obtained a marriage license and found a justice of the peace, who performed the ceremony.

FIND TRACES OF POISON.

New Factor in Mystery of Triple Murder in Oklahoma.

Nowata, Okla., March 5.—A new clue was uncovered in Delaware's triple tragedy today, when it was claimed by chemists that poison had been found in the corpses of Harvey Hurst and Miss Elsie Adams, who, with Mrs. Hurst, were slain and their homes burned over them early in February.

At the hearing of L. C. Harkins, an admirer of Miss Adams, and accused of the murders, chemists told of finding traces of poison. Examination of Mrs. Hurst's body was futile because it had been so severely burned.

Early in February the bodies of the Hursts and Miss Adams were found in the ruins of their home at Delaware. Harkins was arrested. He admitted he had been at the Hurst home on the night of the tragedy, but protested his innocence, declaring he was to have wed Miss Adams. The hearing was continued today.

A NEW FOREMAN AT BASS WORKS

E. W. Seeley Has Taken Charge of the Boiler Department.

E. W. Seeley has taken the position of foreman of the boiler department of the Bass Foundry and Machine works, succeeding Martin Braun, who has occupied that position for three or four years. Mr. Seeley has had much experience in boiler work and comes to the Bass works highly recommended. For some years he was connected with the Allis-Chalmers works in Chicago, but came here from Duluth, where he was employed for awhile by the Duluth Boiler and Manufacturing company. Mr. Braun will remain in the employ of the Bass Foundry and Machine company, though in a different capacity.

NEW INSTRUCTION CAR.

Pennsy Prepares to Educate Men in Lighting Trains.

With the two-fold object of educating employes in electric car lighting and securing uniformity in the work, the Pennsylvania has equipped and started upon a tour of the lines east of Pittsburg a car in charge of men capable of explaining all the devices with which it is provided, which include all the machinery and apparatus of an electric lighted train, such as the high class trains which run through this city. This car is being sent to the different points along the lines where electrical forces are maintained, and the men in charge of it deliver lectures and demonstrations to the men employed in the train lighting department. The two pictures on this page today represent a part of the interior of the car with the lighting apparatus. It consists of a 32-cell storage battery, a turbo-generator, a speed motor with the necessary controlling apparatus for driving the axle devices and a number of axle generators with their regulating equipments. One end of the car has been fitted up as an office and sleeping quarters for the instructor. No date for the beginning of the educational tour of the car west of Pittsburg has been announced as yet, but it is understood that the car and the instructor will spend a portion of the coming summer on the lines west.

KILLED UNKNOWN MAN.

Chicago Limited Struck Him as He Walked on Track.

A man whose identity had not been discovered at noon today was struck and killed by the Pennsylvania Chicago limited, No. 23, at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, at a point one-half mile west of Gary. There was nothing in the pockets of the man to lead to his identity and the body was mutilated beyond recognition had it been viewed by some one who knew the man when he was alive. Engineer George Kensill, who was at the throttle of the engine which struck the man, says that the fellow walked directly towards the train, his attention being attracted by a moving train on the other track. Engineer Kensill does not believe the stranger saw the approaching train before it struck him. Conductor James Finnell notified the agent at Gary, who sent some section men out after the remains and they are now being held in that city for identification.

LOSS IN OPERATING REVENUE.

Year 1911 Was Not Very Profitable to Pennsylvania.

New York, March 5.—Revenue from passenger transportation of the Pennsylvania Railroad company during the year ended December 31, 1911, according to the annual report, was $33,525,582, the largest in the history of the company, and an increase over 1910 of $836,159.

At the same time the gross revenue of the railway lines for the year was $157,487,412, a decrease of $2,969,885 from 1910 figures, due principally to a decrease in merchandise freight revenue and a small decrease in coal and coke revenue. Operating expenses for the year were $113,228,393, a decrease of $1,584,235, so that the loss in net operating revenue was only $1,385,650.

MACHINISTS TAKE ON BOOM.

Friendship Lodge, I. A. M., Getting New Members.

Friendship lodge, No. 70, International Association of Machinists, had one of the most interesting meetings of the winter last night. Seven candidates were initiated and the applications of eleven others were presented and they will be taken into the union at the next meeting. The local now has 340 members in good standing and this will be increased, the officers of the lodge say, to 400 before the summer months arrive. James Lechler, the president of the union, said this morning that there were in the neighborhood of 800 men in Fort Wayne who are eligible to membership in Friendship lodge and work with the view of getting those out of the ranks interested is now in progress.

DELEGATE MAKES REPORT.

Harry Kendrick, delegate to the international convention of the Bricklayers' union, talked interestingly last night of some of the propositions the international association has been and is now wrestling with, chief among which is a pension department which gives a death benefit of $300 and provides a monthly allowance for the aged and those who are incapacitated by sickness or accident. There are 90,000 men in the United States and Canada who are identified with the Bricklayers' union. Mr. Kendrick says that there is $300,000 in the international treasury and that the interest from this sum has been sufficient to pay the salaries of the officers. The local organization has eighty-five members.

FINGER BADLY HURT.

B. C. Meyers, of the Pennsylvania boiler shop, will be off duty awhile as the result of an accident yesterday. While he was holding a sledge against a rivet he allowed the little finger of his left hand to get between the sledge and the rivet and when the man on the other side delivered a blow the digit was crushed. The company's surgeon dressed the wounded finger.

CALLERS HAVE BUSY TIME.

William Smart, train crew caller for the Nickel Plate, has been disabled by sickness for a few days. Calling engine and train crews now days is one of the most strenuous vocations in existence, and particularly with the Nickel Plate is this true, for the movement of trains was never as heavy on that line as it is at present.

FELL UNDER A TRAIN.

Brakeman Egan lost three fingers of his left hand and narrowly escaped more serious injuries or death yesterday afternoon when a grabiron gave way and allowed him to fall to the tracks beneath some moving cars. The injured hand was dressed by a surgeon at Roanoke and Mr. Egan was then sent to Peru on an interurban car.

MACHINISTS ATTEND FUNERAL.

The union machinists of the city were well represented at the funeral of the late Christian F. Cook at the English Lutheran church this afternoon. As a result, there was little doing in the machine shop of the Wabash this afternoon. Mr. Cook was a prominent member of Friendship lodge.

SUPPLIES EXPERT HERE.

J. H. Rice, purchasing agent for the Santa Fe company, is in the city in the capacity of a supplies expert for the Wabash receivers and the men back of the reorganization plans for the company. His stay here will probably be short.

INDEX FINGER CRUSHED.

H. Roebuck, heater for the slab gang in the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, working at nights, had the index finger of his right hand badly mashed at 2 o'clock this morning. The digit was dressed by the company's surgeon.

PULLMAN CAR AFIRE.

Nickel Plate passenger train No. 3 was delayed for some time between Lorain and Vermilion Sunday afternoon when a fire was discovered between the floors of one of the Pullman coaches. The coaches are built with double floors and the fire was burning briskly when discovered. It was necessary to chop through the coach floor before the fire could be extinguished.

NEW COMMERCIAL AGENT.

H. T. Jenney has assumed the duties of commercial agent of the Lehigh Valley road, with headquarters in Toledo. This is a new office. Mr. Jenney was here this morning. A. C. Williams, another well known freight agent, was also in the city awhile today.

HAD THREE TOES CRUSHED.

Machinist J. R. Markey, of the Wabash, had three toes crushed yesterday when a heavy casting fell upon one of his feet. Dr. Kaadt, the company's surgeon, attended the unfortunate man, who will not be able to work for a few weeks.

W. G. BLACK HERE YESTERDAY.

Master Mechanic W. G. Black, of the Nickel Plate, spent a portion of yesterday in the city, looking after affairs connected with the department of which he is the head. He returned to his home in Stony Island last night.

OUT ON INSPECTION TRIP.

Supt. W. M. Wordrop and some of his staff officers are making a trip over sub-division C today. They went to Crestline on the division special train early this morning and will return this afternoon.

BYRON THOMAS PROMOTED.

Byron L. Thomas, a machinist in the employ of the Pennsylvania, has been transferred from that work to special work at the shops. The change is a promotion for Mr. Thomas.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

O. W. Armstrong, a Pennsylvania switchman, is sick and off duty.

J. Fraine and S. D. Keim, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

Division Storekeeper C. P. Cherry is east on business for the Pennsylvania company.

W. H. Collins, a boilermaker helper, resigned his positon at the Wabash shops yesterday.

Delbert Vardeman, coal crane engineer at the Nickel Plate yards, is sick and off duty.

D. A. Corey, general sales manager of S. F. Bowser & Co., Inc., is in the east on company business.

Foreman W. A. Bell, who had been sick a week, resumed his duties at the Wabash shops this morning.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Pasik, of 1714 Force street, Sunday. The father is employed at the Pennsylvania car shops.

C. H. Shuster, a carpenter who sprained one of his ankles two weeks ago, has recovered and resumed work this morning.

Machinist F. A. Byanskie, of the Pennsylvania erecting shop, is off duty on account of the serious illness of his 12-year-old son.

Engineers I. F. King and C. H. Platt and Firemen Clyde Seery and O. E. Glass, of the Pennsylvania, are off duty on account of sickness.

P. F. Cashman, Bowser salesman in the North Dakota territory, is in Fort Wayne in conference with local officials of the oil tank concern.

Arthur Foellinger, for three years a clerk in the Schwier grocery, on Montgomery street, has resigned to take a clerical position at the Pennsylvania shops.

R. G. Schulze, of the general sales department at the S. F. Bowser offices, resumed his duties at the offices yesterday following a few days' absence caused by sickness.

George Brake, a draughtsman at the Pennsylvania shops, was initiated into Fort Wayne lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., last night. He was able to report for duty this morning.

Superintendent M. L. Reynolds, of the Lansing division of the Lake Shore, with headquarters at Hillsdale, Mich., was in Fort Wayne the greater part of yesterday on company business.

Supt. J. C. Sullivan, of the Wabash, spent the night in the city, going east on the local freight this morning. He is looking up some matters in connection with the local freight service.

A. D. Imbody was given employment yesterday as a fireman on the Grand Rapids & Indiana road. Imbody until just recently was employed at the plant of the Fred Eckart Packing company.

Chester Bailey, who has been employed as a pipefitter at the Wabash shops, has resigned his postion there. He has accepted a similar position at the plant of the Western Gas Construction company.

O. C. Fredericks, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, is off duty on account of a relative being very sick at the hospital. The patient resides out of the city and was brought here yesterday for a surgical operation.

Engineers B. Fullerton, Bert Baughman, P. Donahue, C. Allen, C. H. Titus and Robert John, who had been off duty a few days for various reasons, reported yesterday. The road is busy and a road man has to offer a good reason before he is permitted to lay off at present.

The people of Garrett have the assurance from the Baltimore and Ohio officials at Baltimore that the improvements propsoed for the Garrett shops will be pushed through the coming summer. They will include a new round house with a 100 foot turntable, some new shop buildings and lots of new equipment.

VANDAL ATTACKS WOMEN.

Throws Peculiar Red Liquid on Gowns of Victims in Street.

Los Angeles, March 5.—Mrs. B. Huntas, of the Hotel Voegel, had her dress ruined by a peculiar red liquid on Broadway by a stranger, who fled after throwing the fluid.

Mrs. T. H. Rosenberger, of 1126 West First street, was a victim of the same individual near the Belasco theater. A pretty evening gown was splashed and the stains could not be removed.

Both women reported their experience to the police, who failed to locate the offender or to learn the motive for his strange vandalism.

A. C. WOOD IS TREASURER.

Angola Chairman Chosen by District Democrats.

Alphonso C. Wood, democratic chairman of Steuben county, was elected treasurer of the democratic central committee of the Twelfth district during the meeting of the chairmen in Fort Wayne Monday afternoon. The office is a new one, made necessary by the new corrupt practices act in Indiana.

TOWN WET; BANK CLOSES.

Withdrawal of Funds to Buy Saloon Licenses Cripples Institution.

Boise, Idaho, March 5.—Because Idaho county voted wet, granting licenses to saloons, there was a wild scramble by depositors to get their money from the Elk City State bank to buy licenses, draining and breaking that banking institution.

The bank probably is the first banking house forced to close its doors because of the temperance issue. Idaho county had been operating under a local option law and was dry and without a licensed saloon. After the dry law had been in operation two years the county commissioners, through petitions, called an election to determine whether the county would continue dry. It has been claimed that under the dry policy bootleggers had flourished.

This assisted the cause of the wets and the county voted to return to the licensed saloon. Many depositors of the Elk City bank were interested in saloon licenses, and they drained the bank until there was not money left to pay other depositors.

LOOK OUT FOR CHALK MARK.

Sign Under Doorbell Means Your House is Easy for Thieves to Enter.

San Francisco, March 5.—Have you noticed a peculiar chalk mark just under the bell on the street door recently?

If not, keep watch, and if a mark of this kind appears there, as if by magic, some day, notify the police at once.

It is the sign of the burglars. It means that your house has been marked for easy entrance. It has been found on more than 400 houses in San Francisco recently.

The sign is in white chalk and forms a kind of a monogram made up of "A" and "C" joined. It is written so that it looks something like an "H."

Watch for it, for on many of the houses where the police have been called to investigate burglaries this mark has been found. It is a mystery. The police are keeping watch in a general way on all houses picked out in this manner, and they hope to catch some one soon.

Sheriff H. A. Shumaker, of Whitley county, was in the city yesterday.
